FORWARD

Soon, we the graduating class of Seattle Prep (1951) will disperse into this world to our various stations of life. Our destiny is unknown except to God.

Therefore, in future years if this annual is able to draw us back to our class events, athletic contests, school activities, then it is a success.

For the true purpose of the ECHO is to bring forth old memories of the past four years, dust them off, and display them in all their glory. Hence the joys and disappointments of our high school days can always be found in the following pages of this book.

DEDICATION

Whether in the classroom, on the athletic field, or in some other school activity, any Prepster always finds the Jesuit Priests and scholastics ever willing to assist him in his need.

These courageous men give up their own precious time to take active part in the mental, moral, and physical development of the Catholic youths in their high schools.

Here at Seattle Prep, the sons of St. Ignatius have toiled for over fifty years. In tribute to their untiring labors we dedicate this 1951 annual which is actually an unnoticable reward for their many sacrifices on our behalf.

CLASS of 1951

INTRODUCTION

The 1951 senior class of Seattle Preparatory School will always be remembered for their superiority both in number and spirit. This group of over a hundred Prepsters has performed innumerable feats for the greater glory of their Alma Mater. The success of the past year's football and basketball and ski teams, the prestige of the State Tournament, the awards of oratorical and debate contests, the products of the paper and annual writers, and the performances of the actors have all contributed to the honored name of Seattle Prep. Need the fact be mentioned that the seniors of 1951 were the leaders and nucleus of these worthy contributions? Therefore, only the lack of space, and not the lack of written matter, prevents the publication of a detailed record of this class; thus the following brief history will have to suffice.

FRESHMAN YEAR (1947-1948)

The fall of 1947 brought one hundred thirty-nine eager frosh into the halls of Adelpia... Chuck Riley, Tom Moore, John Haberle, and John Petosa gained positions on the Student Council by being elected class presidents... Moderators were Messrs. Purdy, Danel, Patterson, and Graisy, S. J.... Bill Wilson and Joe Navone headed the two Sodalities... On the gridiron Ken Sweeney, Skip Kays, Owen Deuchler, Jerry Calabrese, Jack Ladner, Phil Waters, and John Petosa displayed promising talent... Marsh Fitzgerald, Tom Gahan, Pat Kelly, and Pat Manning were finalists in the frosh debate tournament... Frosh basketball standouts were Bill Collier, Jack Moss, Pat Roddy, John Haberle, and Skip Kays... The frosh donated a large blue and gold banner to the school for use at games... Journalists Arnold Beezer, John Foster, Jerry Jager, and Pat Manning reported for the PANTHER... On the cub basketball team were stalwarts Tom Greif, Vern Callero, Tim Ryan, Tim Flood, and Bill Wilson... Ed Maher, John Cogan, and Fritz Holt turned to the art of skiing... Jack Nugent, Don Maddox, and Swede Johnson tooted their instruments in the school band... The baseball diamond featured Tom Moore, Paul Cruden, Dave Dorgan, and Pat Clancy... The cinderburners added to their squad Skip Kays, Mike Caplice, and John Fitzgerald.

SOPHOMORE YEAR (1948-1949)

With the cry "Onward sophomores" the class chose their presidents: Bill Wilson-2A, Dave Dorgan-2B, Ken Sweeney-2C, and Jim Moriarty-2D... The moderators in order were Father Sneeringer, Mr. Wollesen, Mr. Toner, and Father Hess... Winners of varsity football letters were Jerry Calabrese, Owen Deuchler, and Phil Waters... The job of cheerleading was taken over by John Cogan, E-Roy Johnson, John Foster, and Pat Kelly... Bob Gilmore and John Cogan were cast in the Harlequin plays... The sophomores won the award for the best display at the homecoming rally... John Haberle, Skip Kays, Pat Roddy played basketball on Coach Goodwin's varsity team... Jack Moss saved the second O'Dea basketball game with a last second swisher... Vern Callero, Tom Greif, Tim Ryan, and Bill Wilson led the B-squad maple courtiers... Ernie Ferullo, Pat Manning, Ed Maher, and Arnold Beezer wrote for the school paper... Pat Kelly and Dick Blewett ruled over the sophomore Sodalities... In the field of debate the following showed speaking ability: Pat Manning, Pat Kelly, Jerry Jager, Marsh Fitzgerald, Ron Tracy, Tom Gahan, Ed Maher, Chuck Riley, and Bill Wilson—the latter going to the Gonzaga Tournament... Slaving in the property rooms were Jack Nelson, Ernie Ferullo, Arnold Beezer, Tim Healy, and Jerry Calabrese... Ed Maher received a gold medal for first place in the Junior Elocution Contest—other finalists included Pat Kelly and Bill Wilson... The Lettermen Club initiated Jerry Calabrese, Phil Waters, Owen Deuchler, and John Petosa... Fritz Holt swished around on his hickory sticks... Tom Gahan, Pat Manning, and Bill Wilson sparkled in the Hearst Oratory Contest... John Petosa won another varsity letter for baseball... Tom Moore, Pat Roddy, Bill Collier, and Terry Haberbusch also distinguished themselves on the diamond... Pat Manning capably directed the intramural league... E-Roy Johnson continued to play in Mr. Gillingham's band... On the track squad Jack Tallman, Skip Kays, John Youmans, and Dick Kays burned up the track.

JUNIOR YEAR (1949-1950)

The class of 1951 now moved into the bracket of upperclassmen... These juniors elected as class presidents: Bill Wilson, 3A; John Haberle, 3B; Owen Deuchler, 3C; and Jack Boulanger, 3D... Moderators in order consisted of Mr. O'Dea, S. J., and Fathers Sneeringer, Renner, and Lanphier, S. J.... Swede Johnson earned the title of yell king... The strength of the football team rested on Owen Deuchler, John Petosa, Jerry Calabrese, Skip Kays, Paul Cruden, Pat Roddy, Jim Moriarty, Dave Dorgan, and Phil Waters... Pat Kelly was reelected Sodality Prefect... Jerry Jager, Tom Gahan, Bill Wilson, Chuck Riley, Ron Tracy, Marsh Fitzgerald, and Pat Manning pushed forward in the Debate Club... Bill Wilson took over the office of A.S.S.P. Secretary... Ernie Ferullo and Dick Blewett obtained roles in the school plays... Jack Nelson, Tim Healy, and Dick Kays worked as varsity managers... John Haberle was named All-Cross State in basketball; other varsity members included Jack Moss, Vern Callero and Skip Kays; B-squad stars were Tom Greif, Tim Ryan, and Bill Collier... Writing in the Panther Office were assistant editors Jack Riley, Bill Holland, and Arnold Beezer... Marsh Fitzgerald and Ron Tracy spoke in the elocution finals... John Petosa served as Secretary of the Lettermen Club... The intramural limelight was dominated by Bob Godana, Augie Bown, and Jack Ladner... Tom Gahan won the school Hearst Oratory Contest... Pat Manning, Bill Wilson, and Pat Kelly directed the Publicity Club and Intramural League... Part of the juniors that pledged the Panther Club were Fritz Holt, Tom Greif, Ernie Ferullo, Pat Kelly, Pat Manning, Vern Callero, and Tom Gahan... John Petosa, Bill Collier, Owen Deuchler, Denny Ward, and Don Maddox sparked the baseball nine... Jerry Jager and Tom Gahan debated in the Gold Medal finals... Skip Kays captained the cinderburners; other track standouts were Tim Flood, John Youmans and Jack Tallman... Chairman Bill Wilson supervised a memorable prom; some of his assistants were: Jack Foley, John Haberle, Denny Ward, Ed Maher, Chuck Riley, and Tim Flood.

SENIOR YEAR (1950-1951)

At last the class of 1951 reached the ranks of high and mighty seniors... Bill Wilson, 4A; Denny Ward, 4B; and Dave Dorgan, 4C, piloted the home rooms... Fathers Logan, Brady, and Lanphier, S. J., respectively, directed the classes... Spirited Tom Gahan led the A.S.S.P.... Popular John Haberle served as "veep" of the student body... All-Cross Staters Owen Deuchler, Skip Kays and Jerry Calabrese inspired the Panthers to a successful gridiron season... "Home of the Brave" was presented with an all senior cast: Pat Manning, Tim Flood, Marsh Fitzgerald, Tom Gahan, Ed Maher, and Dick Blewett... Seniors occupied the various club presidencies: Bill Wilson, Panther Club; John Petosa, Lettermen Club; Jerry Jager, Debate Club; Dick Blewett, Harlequin Club, and Dan Newman, Pep Club... Cheerleaders for football season were John Haberle, Tom Greif, and Tim Ryan... Skip Kays and Jack Moss were voted most inspirational on the football eleven and basketball five, respectively... Pat Kelly edited the PANTHER, assisted by Arnold Beezer, Bill Holland, and Jack Riley... Jack Boulanger and Denny Ward were admitted into the Panther Club... The ECHO editorship was filled by Ed Maher with Pat Kelly, Bill Wilson, and Denny Ward as assistants... John Cogan and Fritz Holt led the ski team to a tie for the city championship... The hustle of John Haberle, Jack Moss, Tom Greif, Vern Callero, Bill Collier, and Skip Kays gained for the maple courtiers a sixth place in Prep's first appearance in the State "A"... John Haberle became the first Prepster ever named to the All-State basketball five... Bill Wilson received a new car for winning the State Oratorical Contest... Jerry Jager won the Gold Medal Debate Award... Two very successful senior retreats were held at Port Townsend... The debaters brought home their usual amount of many trophies from the various tournaments... Bill Wilson secured the valedictorian honors... Pat Manning gained the salutatorian award... Graduation on May 31 ended the memorable history of the spirited class of 1951.

RICHARD OECHSLI BLEWETT

Butte, Montana

Dick, a graduate of St. John's Grade School, entered Prep as a frosh in the fall of '47. It wasn't long before he became outstanding in his favorite activity, that of acting in Prep plays. His complete record reads: Student Council 4; Class Officer 3, 2, 1; Sodality 4, 2, 1, Prefect 2; Echo Staff 4; Panther Staff 3; Harlequin Club 4, 3, President 4; Cheerleader 4; Football and Basketball 1; Baseball 2. Dick's pet expression is, "Hey schozz!"

*Go The boy who puts out the best hamburgers
in town best of luck Dick*

ROBERT MAXWELL BOBACK

Seattle, Washington

"Big Bob" came to Prep as junior, transferring from Marymount Military Academy. Wasting no time, he found his way down to Montlake Playfield and there he joined his fellow Prepsters on the gridiron, making the B-squad in his junior year and the varsity as a senior. He also was on the track squad in his junior and senior years as a shot-putter; and as a senior he was received into the Letterman Club. Bob has a very worthwhile ambition, "to get out of school and keep out of the Army".

JOHN FRANKLIN BOISE

Seattle, Washington

"Frenchman," as he is called, hails from Immaculate Conception Parish where he attended grade school. With a big smile and a witty remark whenever one is needed, John quickly became popular among his classmates. He was a Class Officer 4, 3, 2, and a Sodalist 4, 3, 2, 1. His athletic ability stood out in the intramural baseball league where he made the all-star team for three straight years. John has a lifelong ambition of wanting "to own the only wine cellar in the French Foreign Legion", and his favorite saying is, "Ha, ha, that's rich!"

ARNOLD ROSWELL BEEZER

Seattle, Washington

Coming to Prep from St. Joseph's in 1947, "Beez" got off on the right foot by always doing his best both inside and outside the classroom. This can be shown by his impressive record which includes: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Panther Staff 4, 3, Associate Editor 4; Harlequin Club 4; Debate Club 1; Varsity Football and Baseball Manager 2; Radio Club 4. "Beez's" loyalty belongs only to the German race, his ambition being "the deportation of all Irish to potato farms".

WILLIAM JOSEPH BUCKLEY

Kansas City, Missouri

"Wild Bill" came ridin' up from Texas just a hundred years after the gold rush and entered Prep in 1949 as a transfer from the Jesuit High School in Dallas. Being used to Jesuit schooling, Bill blended in with the ways of Adelpia and soon acquired many friends. Because of his short career as a Prepster, "Buck" was unable to really get rolling in extracurricular activities. "Wild Bill" intends to go on after high school, turning his hand to commercial art; however, he is seriously considering the Foreign Legion.

JOHN EMILE BOULANGER

Seattle, Washington

Jack came to Prep in 1947 as a graduate of Blessed Sacrament Grade School. Friendly to all, it took Jack little time to win the admiration of his classmates, for each year he was elected an officer of his class and as a junior he was on the Student Council. In his junior and senior years he was received into the Harlequin Club, being elected Secretary as a senior; and in his fourth year he was admitted into the Panther Club. Jack's hobby is automobiles, as he has owned one for years.

AUGUSTUS IGNATIUS BOWN

Seattle, Washington

"Sonny" came to us from Immaculate Conception where he attended grade school for eight years. The most striking thing about him is his ability to make friends with everybody, which fact can be attributed to his great sense of humor. A proof of his popularity is that as a frosh and as a soph he was elected a class officer. "Sonny's" athletic ability showed up in the intramural basketball league where for two years he was elected to the all-star team. He was also a member of the Sodality for four years. His ambition is "to play professional basketball", and his favorite saying is, "Shape up or ship out!"

RICHARD THOMAS BROWN

Seattle, Washington

Dick came to Seattle Prep as a member of the freshman class in 1947, after graduating from St. Catherine's Grade School. His record is as follows: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Harlequin Club 4, 3; Baseball 1; Ski Club 4, 3, 2, 1. As a Harlequin Dick manifested his acting ability by taking part in Prep's musical, "Hullabaloo". When asked what his ambition was, Dick replied that he'd like to put in another six years of school. His favorite expression is, "Is that right?"

VERNON LOUIS CALLERO

Seattle, Washington

One of West Seattle's contributions of 1947 to Prep was Vern Callero from Holy Rosary. His main interest was basketball; thus he turned out all four years, graduating from the B-team to a varsity letter winner in his last two years. As a frosh Vern also found time for football and baseball as well as basketball. "Luigi's" activity record stands as following: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Panther Club 4, 3; Letterman Club 4, 3; Prom Committee 3. Vern's favorite saying is, "Would ya?" He hopes some day to get an M.D. in dentistry.

JOHN MICHAEL CAPLICE

Portland, Oregon

Mike came north from Portland, Oregon, after graduating from Duniway Grade School to enter Prep as a freshman. His varied activities are the following: Sodality 4, 3, 1; Harlequin Club 4, 3; Letterman Club 4; Football 3, 2, 1; Track 4, 3, 2, 1, Varsity 4, 3. Mike is very loyal to his teachers and this is manifested by his ambition which is to build a refuge for old Jesuits. He is easily distinguished by his favorite saying, "Want a bet". No matter what job comes up around Adelphia Mike is always ready and eager to lend a helping hand.

JOHN PATRICK CLANCY

Seattle, Washington

"Clanc" descended Queen Anne Hill to arrive at Prep from St. Anne's Grade School. From the very start he went all out for baseball and participated in that sport all four years, being on the soph-frosh team in his first two years and the varsity nine in his upperclassmen years. "Clanc" was a class officer as a junior and a member of the Letterman Club as a senior. Pat also sparked many of his room's intramural teams.

GERALD ANTHONY CALABRESE

Seattle, Washington

Entering from Mount Virgin in 1947 as a freshman, Cal started off on a fine career at Prep. Here is a brief resume of his activities while at Prep: Class Officer 3; Sodality 1, 2; Harlequin Club 4; Letterman Club 4, 3, 2; Football 4, 3, 2, 1, Varsity 4, 3, 2; Baseball 4, 3, Varsity 4, 3. As a senior football tackle, big Cal was elected to an All-Cross State Football team and appointed to the Tri-City squad. Two hundred and fifty pound Cal's most common expression is, "Let's angle", and he will really have to do that if he intends to fulfill his ambition which is to lose weight.

THOMAS EMMET COMER
Seattle, Washington

"Speedy" came to Prep as a freshman in 1947 from Cathedral. He joined the Sodality in his first year and was a member for his remaining three years. He also served as Exchange Editor on the Panther Staff in his first two years. With an eye to the future, Tom's ambition is "to set himself up in an insurance company". His favorite saying is, "That's a fine kettle of fish".

JOHN WALSH CLARK
Fargo, North Dakota

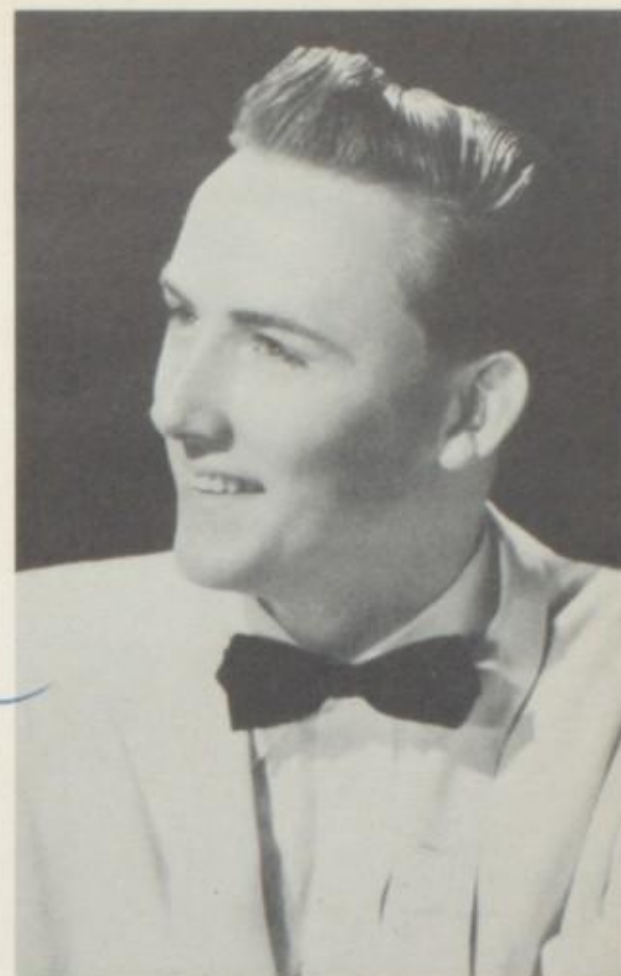

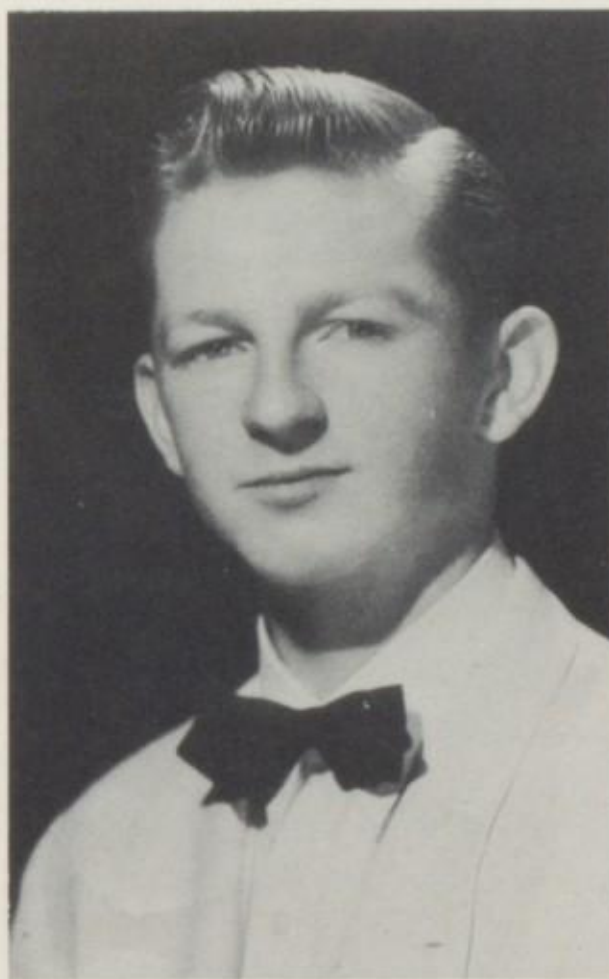

"TV Wiggles" came to Prep from St. John's Grade School. He served as Sergeant-at-arms of 3B and inflicted a virtual reign of terror. The Sodality received him with open arms in his junior year. Father Renner was pleased to have John's assistance in the library as he has an excellent knowledge of shorthand and typing which he acquired at business college last summer. John's ambition is "to hypnotize himself so he can quit smoking."

*Dear Bernie
We've had some great times together.
Two basketballs

John Cogan*

JOHN PATRICK COGAN
Seattle, Washington

"Cog" knocked on the doors of Prep in 1947 as a freshman from St. Catherine's and immediately he set out to make a name for himself in the field of public speaking. His achievements in this field include the Harlequin Club 2, 1; the Debate Club 4, 2, 1. John's other activities include the Echo Staff 4; Class Officer 4, 2; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Cheerleader 3, 2; Ski Club 4, 3, 2, 1; Ski Team 4, 3. Last Christmas John skied for ten days at Sun Valley, Idaho where he picked up his quaint saying, "Sarah baby!"

WILLIAM LAWRENCE COLLIER
Freewater, Oregon

"Ears" entered Prep from Holy Rosary as a freshman. He is one of the few "three-sport" athletes at Prep. Bill starred as a breakaway artist in the backfield of Prep's great football team of 1950; he was an important member of Prep's winning basketball team of 1951; and he played on the varsity baseball squad. Bill was a member of the Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Letterman Club 4, 3, 2; Football 4; Basketball 4, 1; Baseball 4, 3, 2, 1. His sole ambition is "to outrank Coach Goodwin in the Army".

DENIS PHILIP DENNEHY

Seattle, Washington

Denny, the smiling Irishman, came to Prep in 1947 as a freshman from St. Joseph's. He was an active member of the Sodality for all four years. In his last two years, however, journalism captured his interest, and he spent his "spare time" writing for the "Panther" as a junior and senior, and for the "Echo" during his senior year. Denny's ambition is to own a sailboat that will beat Tom Gahan's. His favorite saying is, "Somebody's always taking the joy out of life".

*Loved Kisser
to the Hamburger-Man, Aruch.*

OWEN PAUL DEUCHLER

Watertown, South Dakota

"Deuch" is Holy Family's contribution to Prep's athletic system. In his sophomore year Owen made the football team as a mighty tackle. His upperclassman years saw him monopolize this spot. He was Co-Captain of the football eleven in his senior season, as well as being elected to the All-Cross State team. He was in baseball 4, 3, 2; and Letterman Club 4, 3, 2. Deuch's ambition is "to stay out of the draft" and he can be always heard to exclaim the expression, "That's rich".

DAVID LAWRENCE DORGAN

Seattle, Washington

"Dee-Dee", coming from Immaculate Conception Grade School was one of Prep's most energetic members, both in sports and activities. Dave's timely wit has produced many a laugh in his classes during the last four years. His log includes: Student Council 4, 2; Class Officer 4, 3, 2, 1; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Harlequin Club 4; Letterman Club 4, 3; Football 4, 3, 2, 1, Varsity 4, 3. Dave's ambition is "to keep out of the army".

PAUL EUGENE CRUDEN

Fargo, North Dakota

"Hello baby, I had to call you on the phone", and once again Paul is having trouble with his love life. "Crunden" descended upon Prep in '47 from St. Anthony's. He was a class officer in his first two years. As a member of the Harlequin Club, Paul was cast in Prep's midwinter play. His athletic record includes two years on the varsity football and baseball teams as well as a year on the frosh football squad and two years on the soph-frosh baseball team. For humorous wit, Paul could most likely out-do any Prepster.

PETER MARSHALL FITZGERALD

Spokane, Washington

"Montlake Marsh" is another St. Joseph's lad. His activities stand as thus: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Panther Staff 4, 3; Debate Club 4, 3, 2, 1; Harlequin Club 4, 3. His most noted trait is his love of arguing and he has no qualms about any topic just so long as he can talk to someone, especially Father Zelenak. Skiing occupies most of Marsh's week-ends, for he hopes some day to represent the United States as a ski racer in the Olympics.

ERNEST JOSEPH FERULLO

Seattle, Washington

Ernie, the Greenwood lad with the green "Chevie", came to Prep from St. John's and since then has made quite a record for himself. His accomplishments include: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Panther Staff 3, 2, 1, Exchange Editor; Panther Club 4, 3; Harlequin Club 4, 3, 2. Ernie's prime ambition is to take a six months' vacation twice a year. His hobby is the up-keep of his numerous family automobiles, and in regards to cars his usual exclamation is, "Has she got Pipes?"

GERALD PAUL FIORITO

Seattle, Washington

"Little Italy" came to Prep from St. Catherine's Grade School. He entered the Sodality in his freshman year and continued in this society through his senior year. He wants to some day ride Phil Waters piggy-back to Korea, spurring him all the way. One of Jerry's biggest problems is to keep his massive pompadour from falling down. One can hear him often quoting his favorite saying, "Who wants a da banana?"

JOHN ROBERT FITZGERALD

Seattle, Washington

"220 Fitz" came to Prep from St. Patrick's and his nickname really suits him for he has made quite a record for himself in track. For the past four springs, no less, John has been an enthusiastic sprinter on the cinderburner team. He made his track letter in his upperclassmen years. His other activities include: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; and Letterman Club 4. The track team is very tired of his proverbial expression, "We're off! But how far?"

I love you and your burgers Bernie.

Jerry

JOHN MICHAEL FOLEY
Seattle, Washington

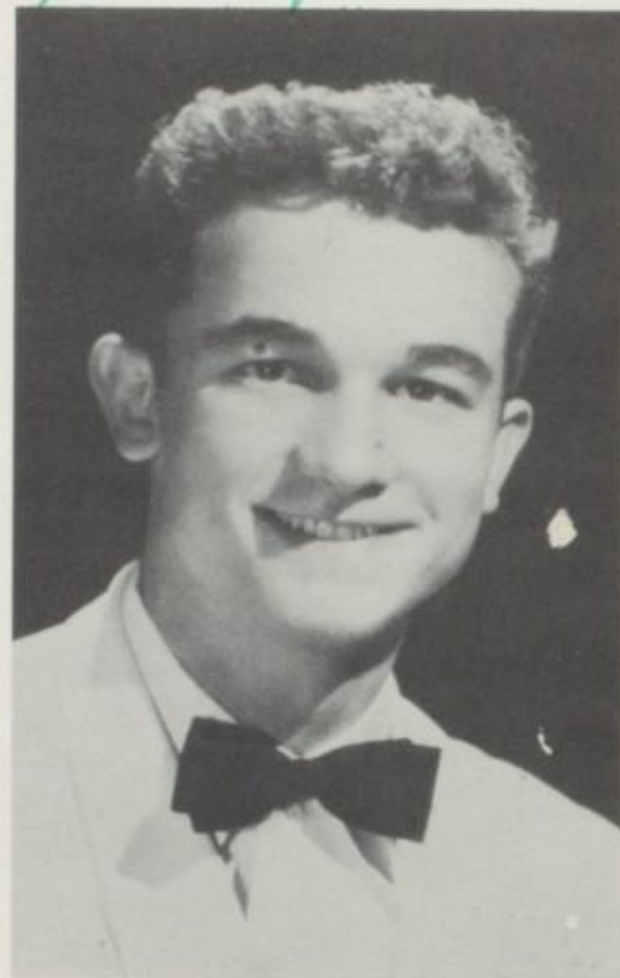

Jack entered Prep from St. Anne's and his ambitious nature led him into many school activities. These include: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Vice Prefect 2; Panther Club 4, 3; Football 3, 1; Prom Committee 3. His ready wit, amiable disposition, and hilarious adventures have earned him a particular place in the memories of his classmates. Remember when he turned purple after falling asleep under the sunlamp? Jack's pet pastime is "to be out with the boys".

JOHN FREDERICK FOSTER
Seattle, Washington

John entered Prep from St. Joseph's as a five foot frosh (remember?) and surprised everyone by ending up (get it?) as a real six-footer. His activities include: Sodality 2, 1; Class Officer 3; Cheerleader 2; Band 1; Panther Staff 2, 1; Assistant Librarian 4, 3, 2, 1. Dressed in his levis, bright shirt, and lustrous tie, John devotes most of his night life to the pursuit of good old western square-dancing.

*Good luck
Business!
It's been heck (of a lot of fun)
but we made it!
Tom Gahan*

THOMAS WISNER GAHAN
Tacoma, Washington

Adelphia ran into a real piece of luck by luring "loyal" Tom from St. Joseph's four short years ago. His academic activities include: Football 1; Basketball 1; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Class Officer 3, 1; Panther Club 4, 3; Harlequin Club 4; Debate Club 4, 3, 2, 1; Cheerleader 4; Student Council 4; A.S.S.P. President 4. Tom's excellence in public speaking is manifested by the following record: 1st place—Seattle U. debate 3; 1st place—Gonzaga debate 4 (one year scholarship); 1st place extemp—Seattle U. 4 (one year scholarship).

LEO TIMOTHY FLOOD
Seattle, Washington

"I care" and one knows Tim has again expressed his honest opinion on the matter. Tim came to Adelphia from none other than St. Joseph's. He got off to a fast start in his career at Prep, playing cub football, basketball and baseball. His other activities include: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Class Officer 4, 3, 2; Track 4, 3; Letterman Club 4, 3; Prom Committee 3; Harlequin Club 4. His praiseworthy ambition is to raise "goombies".

THOMAS HURLEY GREIF

Seattle, Washington

"Tex" began his Prep days as a freshman from St. Joseph's. Basketball received most of his attention during his stay at Prep, participating 4, 3, 2, 1, Varsity 4, B-squad 3, 2, Cubs 1. Besides serving as a class officer in his senior year, Tom added many other school achievements to his record: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; and he was one of the fortunate sophomores who was elected to the Prom Committee. He says that he has no special ambition, but it's been heard that he sneaks into the closet and plays F.V.'s drums when nobody is home.

ROBERT HENRY GILMORE

Seattle, Washington

"Speedy" came to Adelphia from Blessed Sacrament Grade School. During his stay at Prep Bob became active in the Harlequin Club (4, 3, 2), appearing in many plays and skits. The Sodality received his attentions 4, 3, 2, 1; his other activities are: Class Officer 1; Football and Baseball 1; Echo Staff 4. Living up to his nickname, "Hotrod's" ambition is "to drive in the Memorial Day 500 at Indianapolis, Indiana".

ROBERT ELDON GODANA

San Francisco, California

Bob is another Queen Anne Hill boy, for he hails from St. Anne's Grade School. His activities include: Sodality 2, 1; Basketball 2, 1; Baseball 1. Bob has been an outstanding figure in intramural sports, playing football, basketball and baseball nearly every year of his four years at Prep. Naturally then, he was selected for many all-intramural teams. He modestly and humbly claims as his saying, "Ignorance is bliss and I'm the happiest one here". His ambition is to become a successful engineer.

GARY MICHAEL GRAY

Seattle, Washington

Gary came to Prep in his junior year as a transfer from Regis High School in Denver, Colorado. He joined the Sodality and continued as an active member through his senior year. His major achievement was to see to it that the unfortunate Prepsters from the North-end, who have rides to school, made it over the threshold at least thirty seconds before the final bell rang. Gary wishes to develop a golden voice like Mr. O'Dea's, but until then he'll be forced to limit himself to his favorite nasal noise, "ehhhh".

JOHN HAROLD HABERLE

Seattle, Washington

When "Long John" came to Prep from Blessed Sacrament in 1947, he set out to make a name for himself in most every activity he had time for. Along with his jovial personality, John's following accomplishments will long be remembered at Adelpia: Student Council 4, 3, 1; Class Officer 4, 3, 2, 1; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Panther Club 4, 3; Letterman Club 4, 3; Cheerleader 4; Basketball 4, 3, 2, 1; Varsity 4, 3, 2; All Cross-State 3; Baseball 2, 1; Prom Committee 3. John's prime ambition is "to enter the '29 Chrysler at the Indianapolis Speedway". If he doesn't win, he'll spring up and yell, "What the heck?"

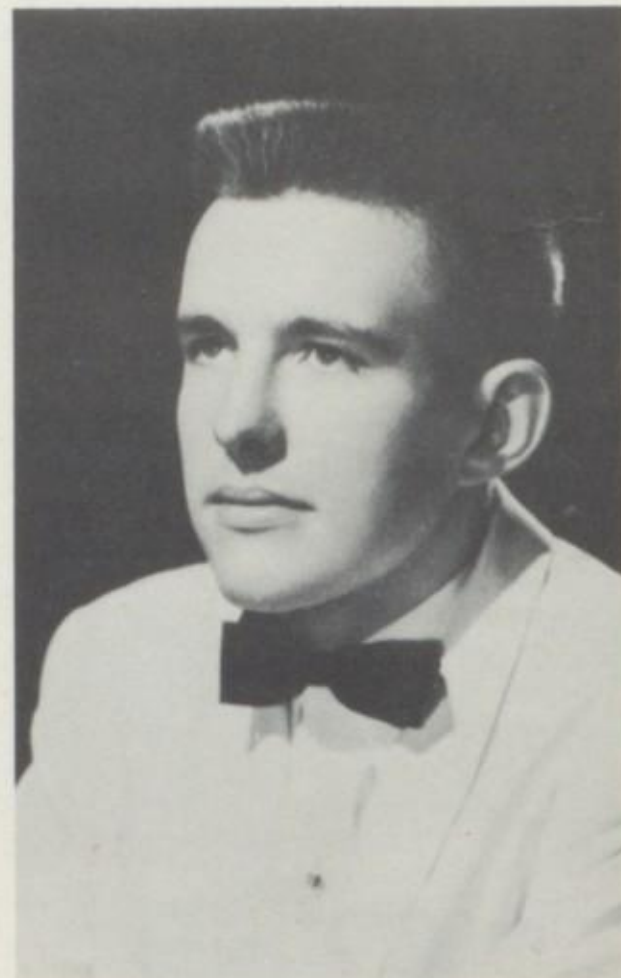

*Well Benn
we'd had a great year together. I wish
I had half your brains
Bernie as you are a damn good scholar
Best of luck in college.
John.*

JAMES JOSEPH HAIGH

Seattle, Washington

At the completion of eight years of primary education at St. Teresa's, "Dirty Jim" turned towards Prep in 1947. He displayed his football talent during his first year as a lineman for the cubs. Not only did Jim serve on the athletic field, but he also participated as an active member of the Sodality for four years. With an easy going smile he relates that his present ambition is "to see a two-game Prep-O'Dea basketball series".

ROBERT CHARLES HANSCOM

Seattle, Washington

Bob attended St. Joseph's Grade School before he entered Prep in 1947 as a member of the freshman class. While attending Adelpia he was accepted into the Sodality and participated in its activities during his last three school years. Cupid must have approached Bob during his stay in high school, for his ambition is to be a "great lover". When he is puzzled by something, Bob yells out, "Ya got me!"

WILLIAM TERENCE HABERBUSH

Seattle, Washington

Entering from Blessed Sacrament as a freshman in 1947, "Ber-Bush" started off his Prep career with a whirl at student government, serving as a class officer in his freshman and sophomore years. His next yearning directed Terry to the baseball diamond, where he played with the soph-frosh team as a sophomore. After his sophomore year, Terry's activities were cut short by a persuasive beckon to assist in managing the "Montlake Food Market". Terry's thirsting ambition is "to own Sick's Brewery".

JOHN WILLIAM HOLLAND

Glenwood Springs, Colorado

Bill entered the halls of Adelpia from Holy Rosary as a young and aspiring freshman. Since his arrival at Prep he has taken an active part in the school's activities by being a member of the Sodality during all four of his years and by working very hard as Associate Editor of the "Panther" during his junior and senior years. Bill is often heard repeating his favorite saying, "Things are rough all over", and he has let it be known that his secret ambition is "to be the faculty's dentist".

*Dear Bernie:
We had a lot of fun
with you and really enjoy your hamburgers. Hope there will be more one day.
Love and best wishes sincerely:
Bill Holland.*

DAVID ORIN HARRIS

Seattle, Washington

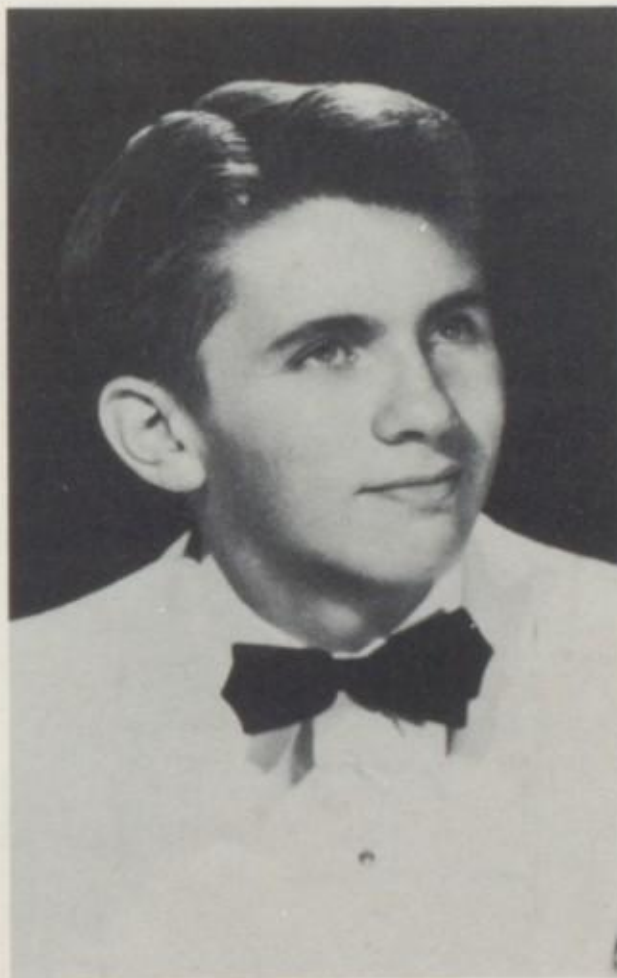

St. George's sent "Shep" to Father McDonnell's School for Boys in 1947. Since then he has proved to be very popular among his fellow students as well as among his teachers. During his four years Dave has taken active part in the program of the Sodality. He was always one of the first boys volunteering to wheel the patients to Mass at Firlands or to take part in other Sodality projects. Dave also worked hard in football for three years; he made the Varsity in his last year. "Shep's" ambition is "to go to Wyoming and become a sheepherder".

TIMOTHY JOHN HEALY

Bellingham, Washington

Tim was probably one of the most loyal fellows in Prep. For during three of his four years he has taken on one of the most thankless jobs in the school, that of being property manager. Besides taking his part in the athletic field he also was an example spiritually as well as scholastically. His favorite saying is, "Forsan et haec olim". He has accumulated quite a record: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Panther Staff 2; Football Manager 4, 3; Basketball Manager 4, 3, 2. Being an ardent sea scout, Tim plans to some day buy the "Phantom".

RAYMOND ARMSTRONG HEILY

Seattle, Washington

Ray first gave Roosevelt a try, but in his sophomore year transferred to the Jesuits' North Broadway establishment. He has been active in the Sodality in his junior and senior years and served as a reporter for the "Panther" also. Skiing occupies most of Ray's week-ends and vacations, for this sport he really enjoys. "Let's hit the 'Names today", and one knows that Ray has started the big climb with a car load of his friends. His secret ambition is "to see a certain senior religion teacher smile".

WILLIAM JOHN HOPPER

Seattle, Washington

"Willy" entered Prep from St. Mary's in the fall of 1947. From that day until this his smiling face and wise remarks have been seen and heard throughout the school. As a sophomore he turned out for track and from his freshman year on he has participated in his favorite pastime, skiing. Besides these activities Bill has worked hard to fulfill his ambition of "cleaning up West Seattle". His favorite saying is, "What a funny looking guy".

EDWIN THOMAS HUNT

Seattle, Washington

Ed crossed the University Bridge and landed at Prep from St. Catherine's. The Sodality caught this boy's eye, for he joined the school's spiritual organization in his freshman year. In the realm of sports, Ed tried a little football in his upperclassmen years. One usually finds this North-ender spending his noon time in his "car". Ed's ambition, "to remain a civilian", might be a difficult thing for him to accomplish in this day and age of atomic war.

JEROME LEONARD JAGER

Seattle, Washington

Jerry, the most optimistic senior in Prep, will always console anyone in doubt with his favorite saying, "The trouble with you is that you worry too much". He came to Prep from St. John's with a burning desire to excel in public speaking. Besides gaining recognition in speaking, Jerry also became noted for his constant argumentation with his teachers. His activity accomplishments are: Student Council 4; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Panther Staff 4, 3, 2, 1; Debate Club 4, 3, 2, 1, President 4. Jerry's present ambition is "to be the biggest beer bootlegger in the United States".

FREDERICK JOSEPH HOLT

Anaconda, Montana

When Fritz "swished" to Seattle Prep from Blessed Sacrament, Adelpia gained a talented student and leader. Fritz has been very active in skiing, bringing home trophies from the different meets. If one can't find him skiing on the Cascade slopes, one will find him with that certain girl from Queen Anne at a dance or some other affair at school. His record stands thus: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Panther Club 4, 3; Ski Club 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Prom Committee 3; All-City Ski Council 4, 3, 2, 1, President 4, Vice President 3; Ski Team 4, 3, 2, 1, Captain 4.

*To a kid
of a swell guy
from mother!
Ed Hunt*

RICHARD ARTHUR KAYS

Long Beach, California

Dick first appeared around the halls of Adelpia when he came to Prep in '47 from Immaculate. He began to do his part to make himself useful by devoting his time and efforts as a manager in basketball 4, 3; and football 4. He was an active member of the Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; and also participated in sports being a member of the track team 4, 3, 2. Dick was admitted to the Letterman Club in his senior year. A tip of the hat to a swell guy who devoted his time to the betterment of a great school.

EMILE ROY JOHNSON

Glasgow, Montana

"Swede" joined the ranks of Seattle Prep as a freshman from Marymount Military Academy in the year of '47. Since the day of his entrance E-Roy tried to make everyone sit up and take notice of his many talents he had stored away. He has taken part in most all of the activities that Prep could offer him. His record reads: Panther Staff 3; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Harlequin Club 4; Cheerleader 3, 2, King 3. "Swede's" ambition is to be a "fly boy". His customary greeting is, "Hi, how are ya?"

JOHN LEWIS JONES

Seattle, Washington

"Easy" Jack entered Prep from Holy Rosary in '47, and at once began to make a name for himself. Jack's wit and humor captured for him the attention and friendliness of the class of 1951. Jack could be seen warning many of the black sheep, with his favorite saying, "You just don't do those things". He was a member of the Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; and also active in sports. His record reads: Football 1; Basketball 3, 1; Baseball 1. "Easy" Jack's ambition is "to own his own car".

CLIFFORD JOSEPH KAYS

San Pedro, California

"Let's hustle" and one sees "Skip" dashing off on another wild escapade. "Skip", a natural born athlete, came to Prep from Immaculate as a freshman and began to apply his talents in sports. His record is one that will not be forgotten for a long time. It is: Varsity Football 4, 3, 2; Varsity Basketball 4, 3, 2; Track 4, 3, 2, 1. "Skip" was elected captain of the track team in '50 and made All-Cross State and Tri-City in football. He was also a Sodalist 4, 3, 2, 1; Class Officer 2, 1; and Harlequin Club 4.

KENNETH LAMOYNE KEMP

Long Beach, California

Ken hails from Blessed Sacrament Grade School, the class of 1947. All four years of Ken's career at Prep have included a steady membership in the Sodality. The fact that he is of a somewhat quiet nature didn't ever stop this Prepper from acquiring many lasting friends. In his junior year Ken got the urge for the outdoors and so he spent a season on the rugged B-football team. If all goes well, this boy hopes to eventually sport a little black bag that has an M.D. certificate within it.

FRANCIS JOSEPH KENNY

Seattle, Washington

Pat (how he derived this name from Francis Joseph is a good question) blazed a trail into Prep from the wilds of Edmonds. As a frosh he joined the Sodality and remained in that organization throughout his high school career. Pat's loyalty to that certain city north of Seattle is manifested by his frequent outbursts of, "Yea for Edmonds!" Pat anticipates a hard but worthwhile future, that of being a farmer.

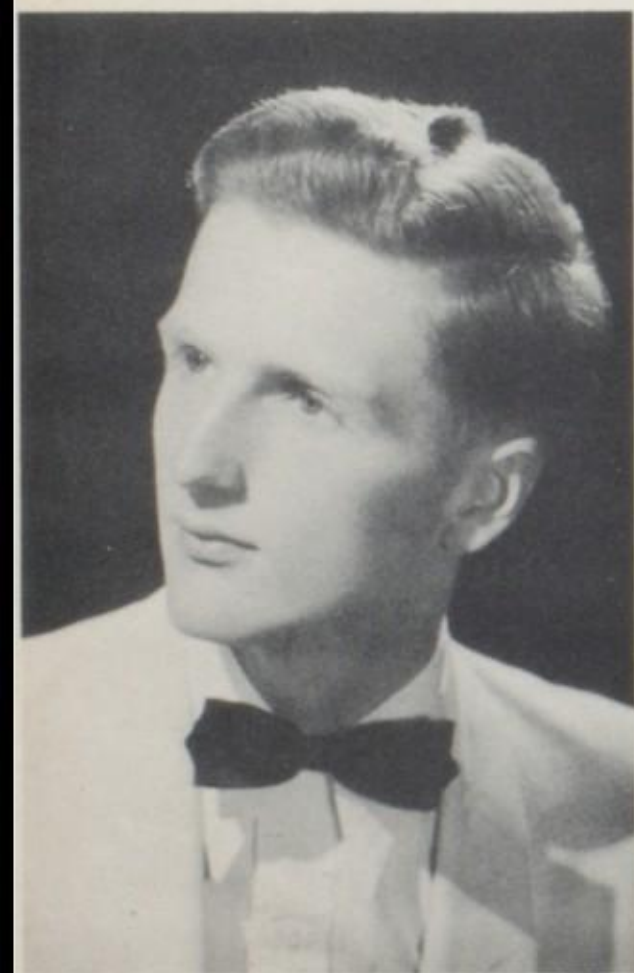

*Best wishes Buns
The Bernal Jim 6'2"*

JAMES RICHARD KERNS

Seattle, Washington

Jim entered Prep in his junior year as a transfer from O'Dea. He immediately got off to a good start with his schoolmates by letting loose with his subtle humor and clever remarks that have disrupted any number of classes during these past two years. "The Kernel" has also interested his classmates with his brilliant speeches on warfare and how the U.N. ought to fight it. Jim's ambition is "to graduate and be cannon fodder".

PATRICK JOSEPH KELLY

Seattle, Washington

Since he entered Prep from Blessed Sacrament, Pat has been one of the most popular and hard working students in the school. As many already know his favorite saying is, "Oh would I". Pat's record includes: Class Officer 4, 1; Student Council 4; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Prefect 3, 2; Feature Editor of Echo 4; Panther Staff 4, 3, 2; Editor 4; Panther Club 4, 3; Vice-President 4; Debate Club 2, 1; Publicity Committee 4, 3. His lofty ambition is "to make around two hundred dollars a minute, like Wilson did in Olympia".

FRANCIS ERSKIN LAMAR

Sioux City, Iowa

As a graduate of Holy Family Grade School, Frank entered Prep as a freshman in 1947. Maintaining good grades as a frosh he merited a position on the Honor Roll. He became a member of the Sodality that year and continued to be a Sodalist for four years. In the field of athletics Frank devoted his efforts to the track team during his junior year. As an ambition he has chosen the art of "learning to fly". His favorite expression, heard quite often is, "Hey, what's going on?"

WILLIAM KENT KIRCH

Seattle, Washington

Bill came to Prep from St. Anne's and has spent his entire four years here, except for a little time he took off to get a sun tan down in Arizona. His activities include Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Class Officer 2, 1; and Harlequin Club 4, 3. Bill is often heard talking of his "many fine times" and one usually finds him laughing or making someone else laugh, for this seems to come very natural to him. His ambition is, "to have his 'Essex' back".

JOHN EDWARD LADNER

Arlington, Minnesota

Jack entered the halls of Prep as a freshman and started off by joining the Sodality and playing frosh football. He then transferred to Edmonds where he played varsity football for two seasons. Jack came back to Prep in the middle of his junior year where he resumed his Sodality work for two years and became a stalwart back on the Panther football team. We know that with his strong will and determination that he will succeed in things worthwhile, which is his ambition.

KENNETH WILLIAM LaGRANDEUR

Missoula, Montana

Prep first saw Ken when he entered in 1947 as a freshman from St. Anne's. During his freshman year he played basketball with the mighty-mites. Also that year he joined the Sodality and continued to be an active member during his four years at Prep. With an eye on the future, Ken's ambition in the business world is "to be a proud owner of a prosperous 'Hock Shop'." Naturally his favorite saying is, "How about that".

*The best good times in living good luck
Bill Kirch*

ROBERT ANDREW LESTER

Seattle, Washington

"Les" first entered Adelphia Hall as a freshman, having graduated from St. George's. His primary desire was to play football. Playing four seasons of football, Bob earned his varsity stripe in his senior year. He was also on the track team in his sophomore and junior years. Among his other activities are included: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Harlequin Club 4. He was also an honor student during his final year. Bob's ambition is a noble one "to become a success in life". His saying is "Chito, chitere, catchi, flunctus".

DANIEL LOUIS LYONS

Seattle, Washington

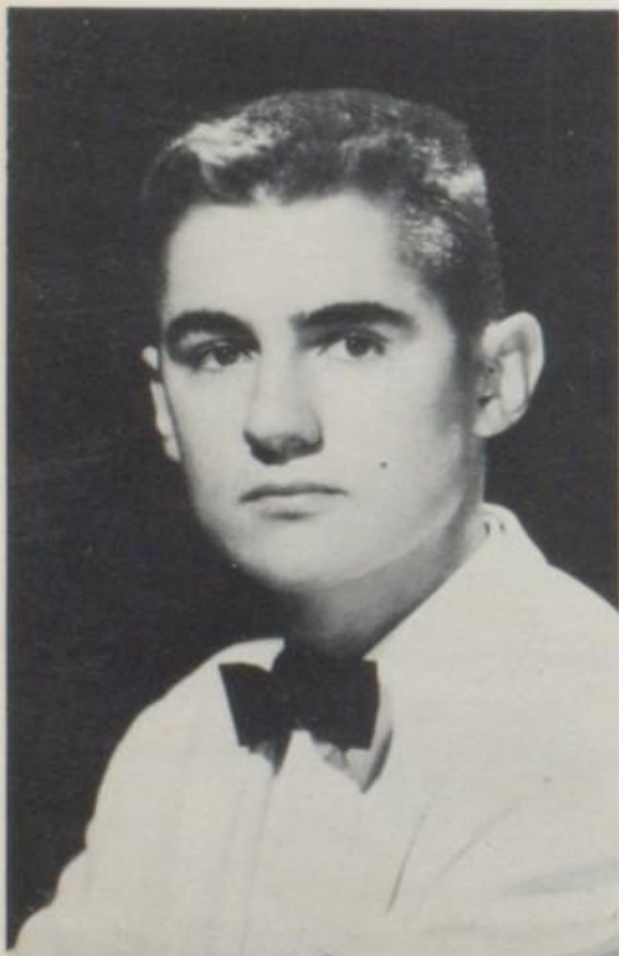

With a cheerful outlook and friendly smile "Butch" ventured out to Prep in 1947 from St. Benedict's Grade School. As a freshman he devoted his attention to the field of athletics by playing on the cub's football and baseball teams. Dan was also a member of the Sodality in his underclassman years. When in an embarrassing situation Butch comes through with his favorite expression, "I didn't know". With this he may fulfill his ambition to live past forty.

DONALD EDWARD MADDOX

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Prep got its first glance of Don when he entered Prep four years ago from Holy Rosary. Don leaves a fine athletic record behind him as he graduates. It reads: Football 4, 3; Baseball 4, 3, 2, 1; Letterman Club 4, 3. His other activities around school include: Band 2, 1; Sodality 4, 2, 1. As a loyal West Seattleite, Don has coined his favorite saying, "It wasn't me". "To outdig Jones' 'Olds'" is his sole aim in life and some day in the far distant future his ambition may be fulfilled.

EDWARD MABRY MAHER

Salt Lake City, Utah

It walks! It talks! It's too good to be true! It's "Woogus", the man from Maher's. Ed came to Prep from St. Joseph's and liked it so much, he stayed for four years. How he spent his time is told only too well by his record. He was an Honor Student 4, 3, 2, 1; Class Officer 4, 3, 2; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Editor-in-Chief 4; Panther Club 4, 3; Panther Staff 3; Harlequin Club 4, 3; Debate Club 2; Elocution Winner 2; Football 1; Basketball 1; Prom Committee 3; Student Council 4; Ski Club 4, 3, 2, 1. Mabry is often heard saying, "Honest officer, I didn't think I was going that fast!"

JOHN PATRICK MOSS

Seattle, Washington

"Runt" pattered up from Holy Family in '47, was elected a class officer, and has been one for the last four years. Jack held a three year membership in the Letterman Club and in his senior year served as the club's vice-president. His favorite sport is basketball in which he earned three varsity stripes, but he also took a swing at baseball in his freshman and sophomore years. "Runt" is one of the most popular boys at Prep. His ambition is to get a little rice selling done in Korea. His favorite saying is, "figure it out".

PATRICK MORGAN MANNING

Seattle, Washington

Being a St. Joseph's boy, Patrick is extremely intelligent. Pat's been a Sodality member 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Panther Staff 4, 3, 2; Panther Club 4, 3; Debate Club 4, 3, 2, 1. Not content with just a few dozen activities, our bloodless friend also took up cheerleading and the Publicity Club 4, 3, 2. His ambition is, "to tear every one of Jerry Murphy's shirts to pieces". Since he is an ardent Latin scholar, his favorite saying is, "Sic volvere parcas".

TOM LEE MOORE

Seattle, Washington

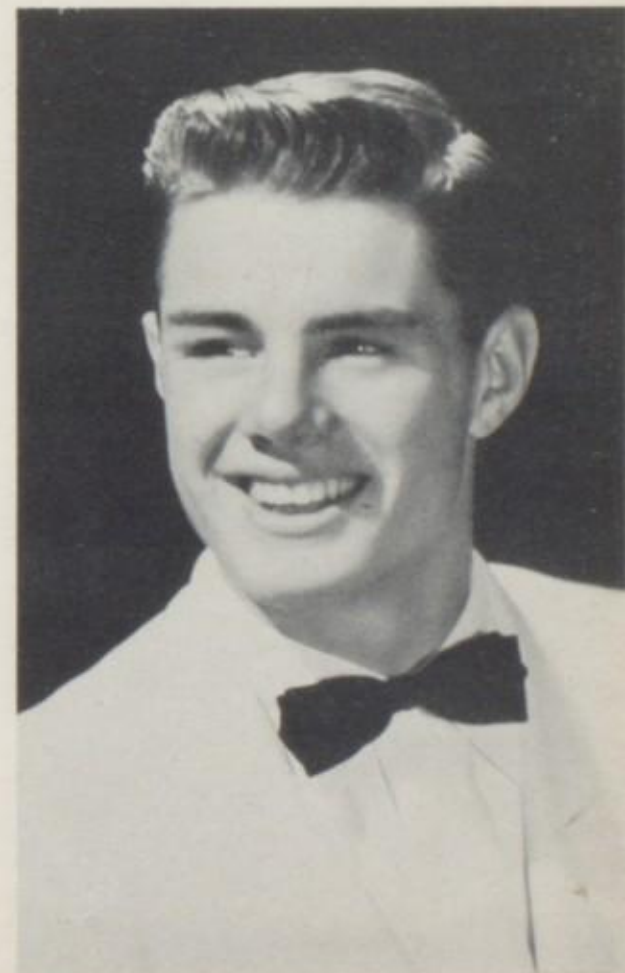

The boy whose formal first name is Tom not Thomas, arrived at Adelpia from St. Joseph's as a freshman. He started off his first year by getting himself elected to the presidency of IB. He was a member of the Sodality 4, 3, 1. Being a rather clever and personable young man, he is well liked by all. His ambition is "to remain a bachelor all his life." However, with his good looks and friendly personality, Tom is going to have a hard time carrying out his ambition.

JAMES TIMOTHY MORIARTY

Seattle, Washington

Being a true St. Anne's man, Jim naturally came to Prep. In his first year he was elected a class officer, and that goes for his sophomore year too. He slaved for a letter in football, and now he ends his Adelpia career as a two year letterman. Jim's noon hour job consists of hauling a load of the boys up to the "Mixer" in his prize Buick. His favorite saying is, "Let's tilt up".

DAVID CRAIG MACLEAN

Vancouver, British Columbia

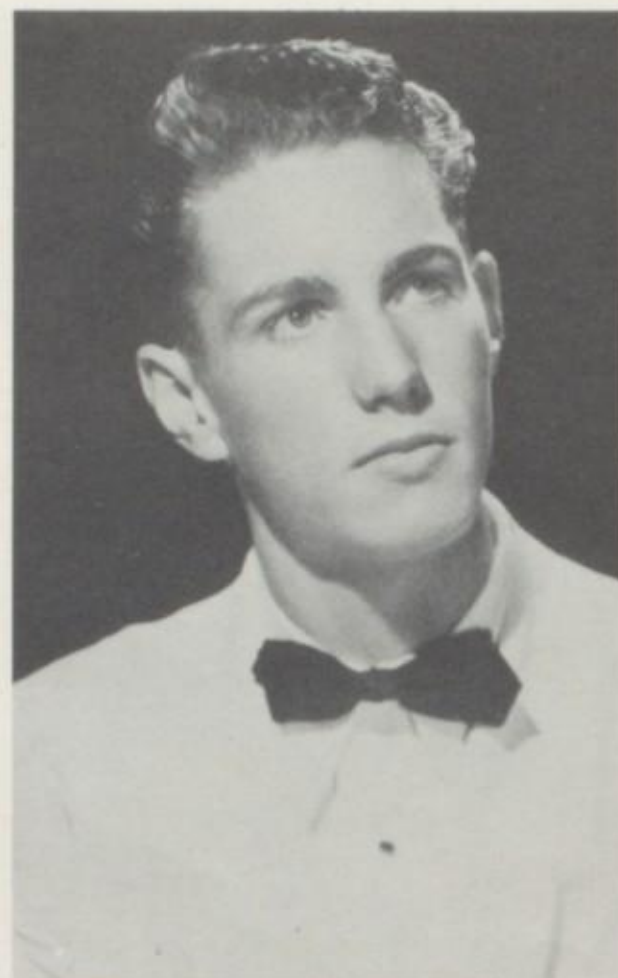

Laying aside his crampons, Dave left his Canadian Rockies for a new adventure in Seattle. Transferring from Franklin High in 1949, Dave entered a bit late to engage in many activities, yet he is still the possessor of quite a reputation around Prep. A person usually doesn't realize when "Mac" is around except when the need for a witty remark presents itself. In the field of sports one finds him enjoying—women, as his saying goes, "It is easier to pick up a girl, than to drop one".

JOHN KEVIN McALERNEY

Seattle, Washington

Introducing the one and only "Mac" who takes an award for being one of the best liked boys in Prep. "Mac's" slow, charming, drawl rings in your ears, even after he has borrowed your last sheet of paper. His typical Irish smile lingers awhile in your memory. John was a member of the Sodality and Pep Club. His ambition, a worthy one for such a renowned language scholar is, "to be the Greek student of the year". His favorite saying is, "What did I do now, mister?"

DANIEL JAMES NAULT

Seattle, Washington

Upon completing his primary education at Blessed Sacrament Grade School, Dan entered Prep in the fall of 1947. Here he immediately joined the Sodality, being a loyal member for all of his four year stay at Adelphia. Dan's academic ability placed him near the head of his class for four years and made him an honor student for three. His quiet friendliness will help him fulfill his worthwhile ambition which is to get ahead in the world.

BERNARD PETER MUMM

Selden, Kansas

Here is the flame of Kansas in person. Bernie attended Canon City Abbey, gave O'Dea a try, and finally landed at Prep in his junior year. Bernie's easy going manner and broad smile make him a favorite around Adelphia. Yes, personality plus an ability to fry "melt-in-your-mouth" hamburgers has endeared "the Mumm" to one and all. Bernie's colossal ambition is, "to see his name in the obituary column before he dies". His favorite saying is, "You have to work to get anything."

DANIEL LAWRENCE NEWMAN

Salt Lake City, Utah

Dan attended Roosevelt High School in Des Moines, Iowa before transferring to Prep in '50. Although he has had little time to make a name for himself, he is known to all because of his cheerfulness and good humor. His willingness to pitch in has been proved by the fact that he helped in the formation of the Pep Club which did so well with Dan serving as president. With such success in this short time one can feel sure that Dan will fulfill his ambition of living on the French Riviera.

JOSEPH ROBERT NAVONE

Seattle, Washington

Joe came to Prep from St. Anne's in the fall of '47 and soon gained recognition by blossoming forth with his many talents. Joe made a place for himself on the honor roll; meanwhile, he served as class secretary in his freshman year and as "veep" as a junior. The Sodality also received much of Joe's attention, being a member four years, including Prefect as a freshman and vice-Prefect in his senior year. While professing his nationalism with his favorite saying, "Italien uber alles!", Joe plans to sell bluestone in "Tanjankia".

DONALD LOUIS NAVONI

Seattle, Washington

"Luke" came to 11th and Miller in the fall of '47 from Immaculate Conception School. Don always provided a cheerful attitude especially in his language classes which were six in number, four Latin and two Greek. "Luke" was elected secretary of his sophomore class; reported for the Panther 3, 2, 1; acted in the Harlequin Club 2, 1; raced with the Ski Club 3, 2, 1; passed out books in the library 3, 2; and labored in the Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1. Don's love for the railway has no doubt inspired his ambition, "to hop freight cars through the midwest."

JOHN ROBERT NELSON

Seattle, Washington

The fog horn blast heard issuing from the halls of Adelpia is not a fog horn at all, but Jack Nelson whose voice resounds with an ear splitting quality. "Moose" came from Christ the King Grade School and has practically lived in the property room here; for after completing one year of football, Jack turned to managing the various athletic teams. He has served as Football Manager 4, 3; Baseball Manager 2; Track Manager 2; thus he has proved his interest in the school's athletics.

WILLIAM JAMES NOLAN

Basin, Wyoming

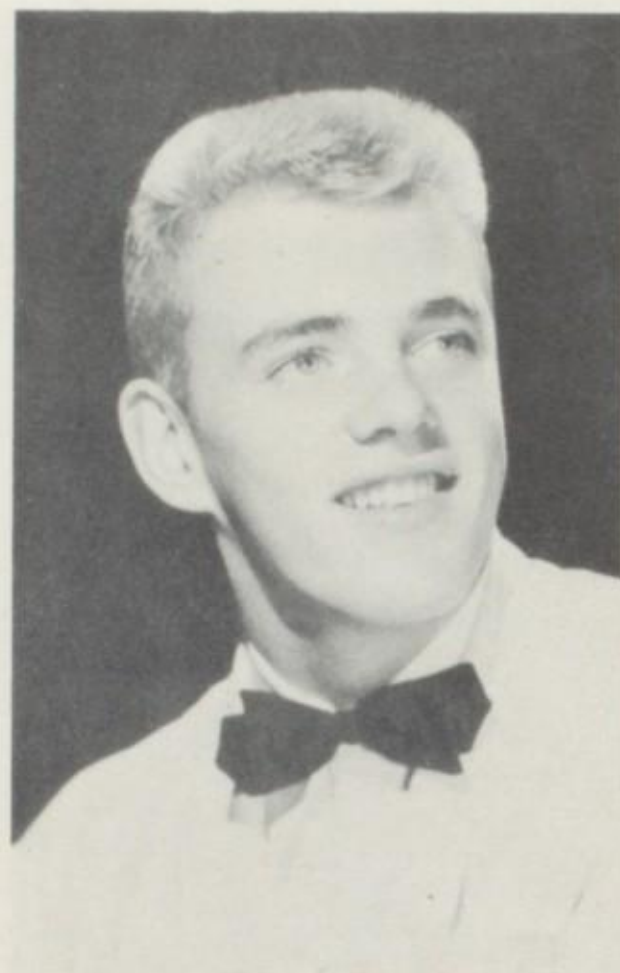

"No-No" was sent to Prep four years ago from St. Joseph's. With plenty of Irish weight behind him "No-No" proved a great asset to Prep football teams. In his freshman year he played as a cub and in his soph and junior years on the B-squad, and finally earned his varsity letter in his senior year. Bill left an impressive record in other activities too: Ski Club 4, 3, 2, 1; Track 3; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1, Vice-Prefect 4. His favorite saying is, "Who, me?".

JOHN FRANCIS NUGENT

Morris, Minnesota

"Nuge" came to Prep from St. Joseph's Grade School. As a freshman he joined the Sodality and played cub football. Jack engaged in intramural sports throughout his entire stay at Prep and soon turned out to be a source of power for his home room. "Nuge" also was a member of the band in his freshman year. Paints and paper will occupy most of his time before he accomplishes his ambition of becoming an interior decorator. His favorite saying is, "I'd rather kiss a duck".

HENRY JOHN PASCHKE

Seattle, Washington

Jack came to Prep from Holy Rosary, and soon was to become a loyal Prepster in the full meaning of the word. When Jack entered in his first year he decided that the outdoor life and sports was the thing for him. He played for the cubs in football and baseball. Then Jack turned towards intramural ball for the next three years. Any day that his class played, one can be assured that Jack was there playing for all his worth. His ambition, which has already been accomplished, is, "to get out of school".

THOMAS BERNARD NOLAN

Seattle, Washington

Terminating his days at Holy Family in 1947, Tom rode the stage into Prep from White Center. He has been seen daily by countless numbers of students as one of Father Sudmeier's loyal bookstore workers. He leaves an impressive Sodality record at Prep, being a member of this spiritual group for four years and a very active one at that. His ambition is to become a dentist. If one hears, "Look at that dolly", he can be assured it's Tom coming.

JAMES DOUGLAS RASH

Nelson, British Columbia

Hailing from St. Patrick's Grade School, Jim walked the few blocks from his home to Prep in the fall of '47. His first interest was in sports, for he joined the track team as a sophomore. However, in his junior and senior years his fancy turned to the stage and so he supported the Harlequin Club with his acting talents. He was a Sodalist during his four years. Jim's air-minded ambition is, "To be a fly-boy, co-pilot to 'Swede'."

RICHARD DONALD PETEK

Roundup, Montana

Dick is one of the boys from Blessed Sacrament who entered Prep, as a hundred others did, in quest of higher learning. On the grounds, around the corner, or in the classroom one is always aware of the fact that Dick is up to some humorous prank. In his freshman year Dick decided to become a Sodalist and remained a faithful and active member the entire four years. His ambition is to become a success in life, which one knows will be easily accomplished.

JOHN FRANCIS PETOSA

Seattle, Washington

"Yogi" came to Adelphia from St. Benedict's in '47 to further his renown as an athlete. After playing frosh football and basketball, John took his first steps toward fulfilling his ambition of "taking over the Yankee backstop job" by playing varsity catcher and earning his first of four stripes. "Yogi" found time also to serve as a Class Officer 3, 1; Student Council 4, 1; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Letterman Club 4, 3, 2, 1, Treasurer 3, President 4; Varsity Football 4, 3, 2; Varsity Baseball 4, 3, 2, 1; and Basketball 1.

RICHARD JOHN PURPUR

Grand Forks, North Dakota

"Purp" came from Blessed Sacrament Grade School and brought with him to Prep a quiet, calm disposition that has never nor probably never will be equaled. Dick has a reputation of knowing more about classical mythology than any other Greek or Latin student. During his four years at Prep he has been an honor student three years besides being a class officer (2). In the Sodality "Purp's" spirited example has been very edifying.

JOHN EDWARD RILEY

Klamath Falls, Oregon

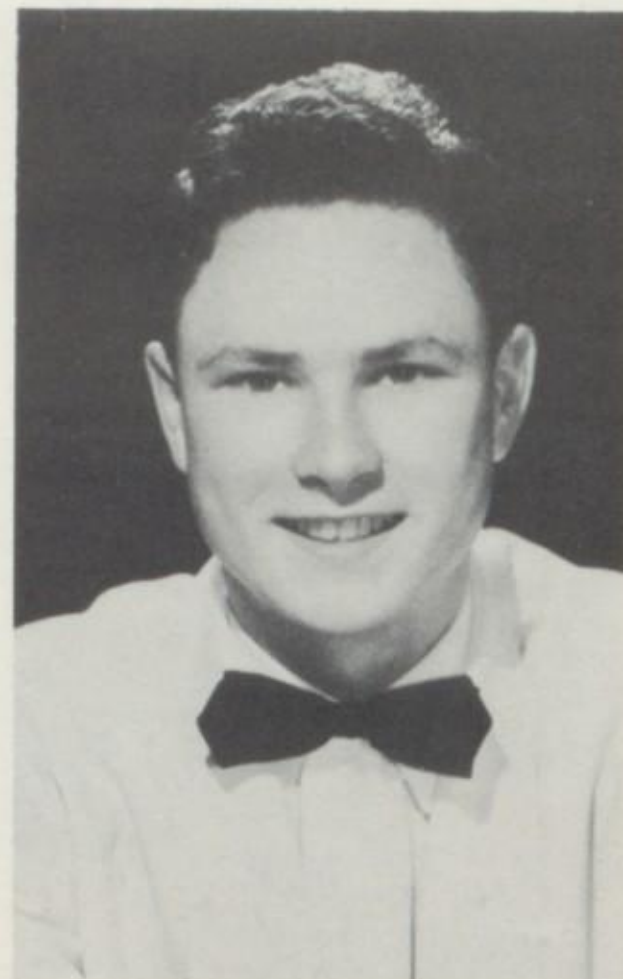

In the fall of 1948 Jack transferred to Adelpia from Saint Mary's, Eugene, Oregon. For the next three years this Irishman spent most of his time in that room of all rooms—the immortal Panther Office. Here Riley produced many remarkable editorials, humorous stories, and character drawings, and merited the job of Feature Editor of the paper. "Carry" spends a great deal of his spare time in reading highly cultured novels. With the ability Jack has shown so far in studies, he undoubtedly will fulfill his ambition to become a doctor.

PATRICK MICHAEL RODDY

Tacoma, Washington

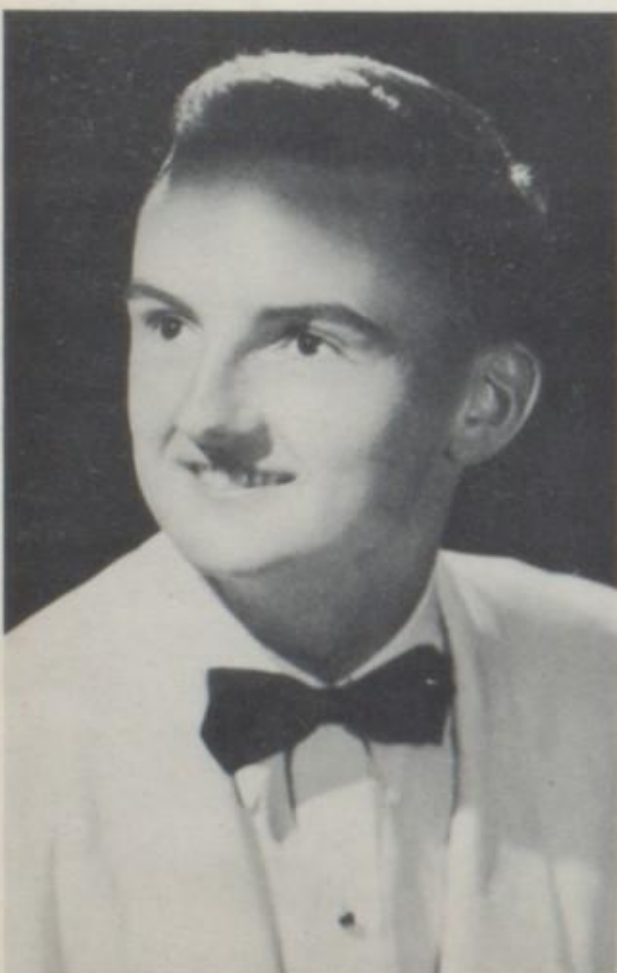

Harlequins! Football! These two school functions have captured the most interest from Pat, the boy from St. Pat's. Prep's acting society satisfactorily discovered him in its midst during his upperclassmen years. Few will ever forget Pat's brilliant quarterbacking on the gridiron field during the past two football seasons. In his freshman and sophomore years he lent his talent to basketball and baseball. The Letterman Club also received him within its ranks.

JOHN TIMOTHY RYAN

Seattle, Washington

"Tim" entered through the arched portals of Old Adelpia as a freshman from St. Joseph's Grade School. He caught the Panther spirit as soon as he arrived, and kept it through his four years at Prep. In his senior year Tim lead the cheers of the thundering Prep herd as football cheerleader. His record reads: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Basketball 3, 2, 1; Baseball 1; Cheerleader 4. Asked whether his burning ambition would be to teach gym classes at the "Names", Tim's only reply is, "horse feathers!"

CHARLES ERNEST RILEY

Seattle, Washington

Upon graduation from St. Joseph's, Chuck descended the "hill" to Prep eager for activity and leadership. He promptly was elected president of IA and also began a four year membership in the Sodality. As the years passed on, this friendly red-head engaged in many more school organizations: Panther Staff 4, 3, 2; Debate Club 3, 2; Prom Committee 3; Panther Club 4, 3; Echo Staff 4. Riley's usual comment to someone is "stupid dog". His ambition is, "to eventually be a millionaire and live a life of 'Riley' in sunny Florida".

STEVEN LEO SHERIN

Seattle, Washington

If there's a question you need answered on the subject of hockey, "Skates" Sherin is the man to consult. Steve came to Prep as an eager freshman from St. Joe's. In his freshman year he joined the Sodality and played football for the frosh football team. His favorite ambition is one that he already has a good start on, mainly that of playing big league hockey. Steve has a pet proverb that goes, "Where there's a will, there's pay".

GEORGE ISADORE SANCHEZ

Albuquerque, New Mexico

George entered Adelphia from St. Patrick's Grade School with sure fire personality and a will to work. George started off his career at Prep by being elected a class officer. "Sanch", as he is called by his fondest admirers has the ambition to become a naval officer and see the world; thus one expects great things of George in his future years. His achievements list as follows: Class Officer 2, 1; Football 3, 2, 1; Baseball 3, 2.

JOHN ARTHUR SCHNELL

Sioux City, Iowa

A deep hearty laugh and a happy expression were characteristic assets of John as he made his way through the four years at Prep. He arrived at the ivy covered halls of Alma Mater from St. Joseph's as a freshman and participated in many activities throughout his school years. His accomplishments are: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Debate Club 1; Football 3, 2, 1; Track 3, 1; Ski Club 4, 3, 2. On the week-ends John can be found in the Cascades, where he hopes to fulfill his ambition of "building a still for thirsty skiers atop Stevens Pass".

STEPHEN JOSEF SELAK

Seattle, Washington

St. Anne's sent a small but mighty individual to Prep in the form of one Joe Selak. "Seppel" as he is affectionately called by his classmates came to Adelphia as a wide-eyed freshman. He was promptly elected a class officer in his freshman year and again as a sophomore. In his senior year "Seppel" turned to drama and landed a part in the Harlequin production, "Mist Before the Periscope". He holds a persistent, but noble ambition to become a millionaire playboy.

KENNETH LAWRENCE SWEENEY

Portland, Oregon

Ken came to Prep as a freshman from Meany Junior High, and almost at once his quiet personality made him one of the best liked lads in the school. He was elected a Class Officer 1, and 2, and a member of the Student Council as a sophomore. Ken's athletic ability is shown by his record which reads: Football 1; Basketball 2, 1; Baseball 1; Track 4, 3; Letterman Club 4. His ambition is "to dodge the draft".

JOHN MACDONELL TALLMAN

Chefoo, China

Prep got its first glance at "Chefoo Jack" in 1947 when he entered as a freshman from St. Patrick's. Every day Jack can be seen taking off for the "Mixer" with Schnell to have a smoke (out of season of course). His favorite saying is, "I've been at the 'Valley'," and he is ambitious enough to want to beat the draft. Jack leaves an impressive record: Sodality 2, 1; Football 3, 2, 1; Basketball 3, 1; Baseball 1; Track 4, 3, 2; Letterman Club 4, 3.

THOMAS BARRY TAYLOR

Seattle, Washington

Barry got a late start at Prep, entering in his junior year from St. Edward's Seminary. He found time to play in Mr. Gillingham's thriving band during his first year, but his senior year was taken up trying to fulfill his ambition, "to keep up the night life". Barry has also taken complete personal charge of all the South-end "red-heads". His favorite saying is "Are you sure?", usually uttered after awakening from a short snooze in class.

JOHN FRANCIS SULLIVAN

Spokane, Washington

St. Teresa's sent a jolly individual to the spacious campus of Seattle Prep in his freshman year. This jolly individual soon acquired the moniker of "Sully", which stuck to him throughout his four years at Prep. "Sully" entered the Sodality as a freshman and continued on through the four years. For a pastime he spends his winter week-ends skiing. When being told an especially tall tale he can be heard to reply, "Wouldn't kid me now?"

RAYMOND DENNIS WARD

Seattle, Washington

Echo Staff meeting, Panther Club meeting, Harlequin Club meeting, look in on any of these and Denny will be present, taking a vital part in their activities. Denny came to Prep as a frosh from St. Benedict's. He was a "four-striper" in the Sodality and a class officer in his junior and senior years. Denny was also Sports Editor on the Echo Staff, an active member of the Panther Club, and was vice-president of the Harlequin Club. His ambition is "to take up that gap between Georgetown and Wallingford".

RONALD EDWIN TRACY

Portland, Oregon

"To be a chemical engineer and invent a new formula for the mass production of home brew at a cheap price"—This is the complicated ambition which best exemplifies "Shadow's" quick wit and sharp sense of humor. Ron entered Prep from St. Catherine's and immediately embarked on a successful career, not only in his extracurricular activities but also in his studies. His scroll reads: Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Echo Staff 4; Debate Club 3, 2; Basketball 1; Baseball 2, 1; Ski Club 3, 2.

JOHN DEVITT WARD

Seattle, Washington

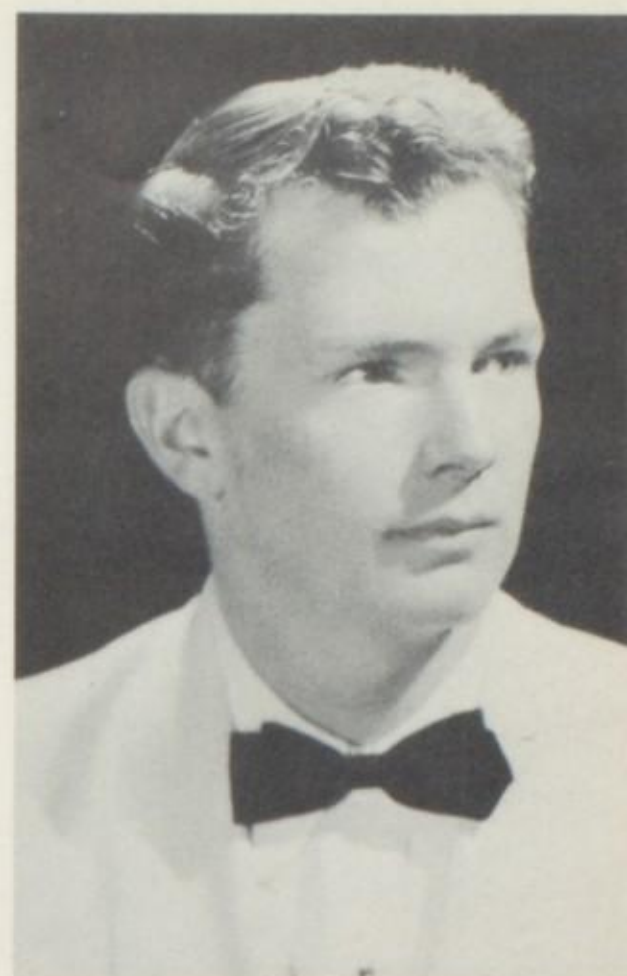

"Dev" is one of the three members of the class of 1951 honored with the last name of Ward. He became a full fledged Adelpian in 1947, after graduating from St. Joseph's Grade School. One activity in particular appealed to Devitt, namely, the Sodality. Thus he has faithfully carried out the rules of Prep's spiritual organization for four years. "Dev's" constant friendliness and happy attitude have gained for him the admiration of many Prep students.

JOHN GORDON WARD

Pueblo, Colorado

John arrived at Prep from St. Anne's in 1947. He immediately started on a career in football which he lettered in as a senior. He was also an active member of the Sodality in his four years at Prep. John is full of the witty and cunning remarks that only a "hilltopper" (Queen Anne, that is) can make. His usual pastime consists of keeping his Buick in shape for his daily excursion from hill to hill.

DONALD LLOYD WASS

Seattle, Washington

"Waldo" entered Prep as a freshman from Holy Family in 1947. During his first year he was an active member in the Debate Club, and a Socialist throughout his entire high school career. As a senior he could always be found hanging around the corner store during noon hour. With his good personality one can be sure that he will eventually fulfill his ambition which is, "to become an architect".

JOHN KEVIN WATERS

Seattle, Washington

"Kev" ventured to Prep, as a transfer from O'Dea, in 1948. His senior year was his most active, for he joined the Sodality, participated in the Harlequin play, "Mist Before the Periscope", and was a reporter for the "Panther". His ambition, "to be the first American resident organist in a European cathedral", though a little strange, could no doubt be achieved. His favorite and very truthful saying is, "You are what you make yourself".

PHILIP LYMAN WATERS

Tacoma, Washington

"Merk" entered Prep from Edmond Meany Junior High. A good worker and diligent student "Merk" found plenty of time for sports. He was a starter on the frosh football team and then went on to play three years of first-string varsity ball, starting at center in his junior and senior years. This year "Merk" was chosen second team Cross-State center and is a Tri-City alternate. Philip's great ambition is to be a wrestler and he can always be found working at this ambition up in the Chem. Lab. His favorite saying is, "What's the good word?"

WILLIAM ANDREW WILSON

Valedictorian of the Class of 1951

PATRICK MORGAN MANNING
Salutatorian of the Class of 1951

WILLIAM ANDREW WILSON
Seattle, Washington

Bill reached Prep from St. Joe's with a smile on his face and a gleam in his eyes. Since then, Bill has amassed a huge treasure chest of accomplishments: Honor Student 4, 3, 2, 1; Student Council 4, 3, 2; Class Officer 4, 3, 2, 1; Sodality 4, 3, 2, 1; Prefect 4, 1; A.S.S.P. Secretary 3; Echo Business Manager 4; Panther Club 4, 3, President 4; Debate Club 4, 3, 2, 1, First Places, Seattle U.-Oratory, Gonzaga-Debate; Prom Committee Chairman 3; Publicity Club 4, 3, 2; Basketball 3, 2, 1. This year Bill placed first in the Washington State Resources Contest winning a new "Bel-Air" Chevrolet.

JOHN PERRY WOOD
Newark, New Jersey

Perry is branded as one of those "hill boys", for he graduated from none other than St. Joseph's Grade School. As soon as the noon bell rings, one finds Perry with cohorts—Sherin and Nugent, dashing off to scout the "Names" and vicinity. His hope of owning a new and plush convertible coincides with the ambition of most Prepsters. When "Oh no, not that!" reverberates throughout the halls of the school, Perry's presence is firmly and happily acknowledged.

JOHN BARRY YOUMANS
Tacoma, Washington

John entered Prep as a sophomore from St. Martin's High. He was chosen as a class officer his first year here and has been a member of the Sodality for the past three years. Besides this he has been in varied other activities: Echo Staff 4; Harlequin Club 4; Letterman Club 4; Cheerleader 4; Football 4, 3, 2, Varsity 4; Track 4, 3, 2. John must have a small knowledge of French, for his favorite saying is, "Sacre Blew".

1951 SENIOR

Since our escape ten years have passed,
And what a fortune we've amassed,
Here's a record from far and near
Of the convicts from Prep, and memories so dear.

Jack Jones is a skipper and Paschke's his mate,
They're proud of their ferry, it's the best in the state.
Deuchler is principal of old Holy Names,
Devitt Ward won the hurdles in the last Olympic Games.

John Cogan owns a brewery, gad what a brew,
Across the street is Boback's where they make with the stew.
Dorgan and Cruden own Belmont Race Track,
Where they clean out your pockets and pat you on the back.

Callero leads safaris in the jungles of Sudan,
Haberbush is a movie star, what a big handsome man.
Greif is married to a gal called Mad.,
Bill Wilson is president, we had faith in that lad.

Wass and Lamar are soldiers in the Foreign Legion,
Right now they hunt Stalin in some far away region.
Tallman and Schnell own a still on the hill,
They sometimes call it the "Schnellman Gin Mill".

Nolan and Boulanger race hotrods for dough,
Bill piles 'em up, Jack makes 'em go.
Dennehy is a senator from the state of Montana,
Calabrese is a crooner and when he sings—Oh, Hanna!

Boise goes to Vassar, how that boy loves school,
Haberle still has the Chrysler, he calls it the "Jewel".
Harris owns a sheep ranch, they call him "Old Shep",
Foster bought Arthur Murray's, he knows every step.

Kirch and Foley own a beauty salon,
Bill cuts it off, Buzz glues it on.
Chuck Riley is a barber with a wicked pig shave,
Next door is Manning's with that fur-lined grave.

Roddy and Maher race motorcycles in France,
Hotshoe and leadfoot in the land of romance.
Moore owns a night club in Beverly Hills,
Where Newman plays his trumpet and foots all the bills.

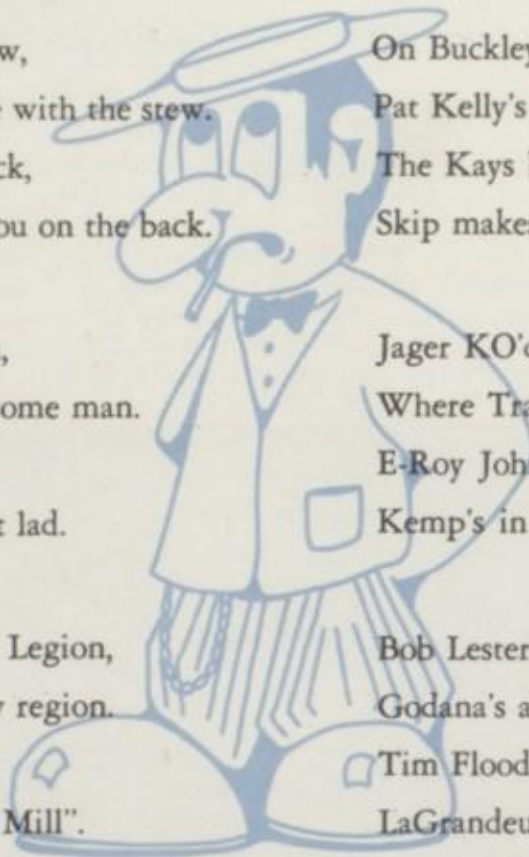

On Buckley's ranch he's called "Arizona Bill",
Pat Kelly's up the river for tapping a till.
The Kays brothers own the Los Angeles Rams,
Skip makes the touchdowns, Dick cheers the fans.

Jager KO'd Sugar Ray in Madison Square,
Where Tracy sells peanuts when he's not cutting hair.
E-Roy Johnson's a wrestler on T.V.,
Kemp's in the Army, a cut little M. P.

Bob Lester has a hairpin factory in the state of Vermont,
Godana's a politician, gets anything he wants.
Tim Flood is a warden at the Walla Walla State Pen,
LaGrandeur's a pro fencer, he's called "Killer Ken".

Petosa plays baseball for the Philadelphia Phils,
Holt owns Sun Valley, he scoffs at the spills.
Tim Ryan coaches S. U., the maple squad that is,
Bill Holland's a bartender, his favorite's a gin fizz.

When you pass through New York, look up Tom Gahan,
Tom and George Sanchez own the state they are sayin'.
Dick Brown and Dick Blewett own a dress shop in Greece,
It seems they are running from the Grecian police.

CLASS PROPHECY

Augustus Bown is a novelist of renown,
Bill Collier is in show business, he's a circus clown.
Sweeney plays the harp when he's not shining shoes,
John Ward runs a union, he collects all the dues.

Ladner and Purpur own a gambling hall in Reno,
It says out in front, "The Purpner Casino".
Denny Ward retired to Mexico, they call him "Conchita",
Bob Gilmore runs a wire service at Santa Anita.

Jack Moss plays basketball for Alpine Dairy,
Mumm is a Charles Atlas called "Burnie the Hairy",
Sherin's a seamstress, he's fast with the needle,
Joe Selak's a steeple-jack, they call him the "Beetle".

Heily and Caplice are chefs down in Chile,
They run a Triple X, and is it a dilly.
Arnold Beezer's a farmer, got a spread in the hills,
John Clark's in a side show, drinks cyanide for thrills.

Clancy and Comer carry mops and a pail,
They're swabbing the decks each day without fail.
Hanscom's a millionaire, he worked for his dough,
Marshall Fitzgerald collects garbage down on skid row.

Gray is a psychiatrist, he helps out the sad,
Ferullo's a policeman, he gets 'em mad.
Great is the wine of grape-smasher Haigh,
Doc Youmans is in the nut house, he cut off his leg.

Bill Hopper's a ranger on top of Pike's Peak,
Phil Waters is on T.V., they call him the "Beak".
In the mud-slogging Army you'll find Perry Wood,
Jack Riley is still at Prep, we did all we could.

Maddox sharpens pencils out at Sick's,
Taylor owns Montana, lives in the sticks.
Nugent is a fisherman in Florida's Everglades,
Don Navoni wrote a book called "Dago's Escapades".

Nelson rents his yacht to the big wigs of Seattle,
Nault married Lana Turner, haven't had one battle.
Joe Navone is a bed tester at Sear's,
Danny Lyons owns San Quentin, been there for years.

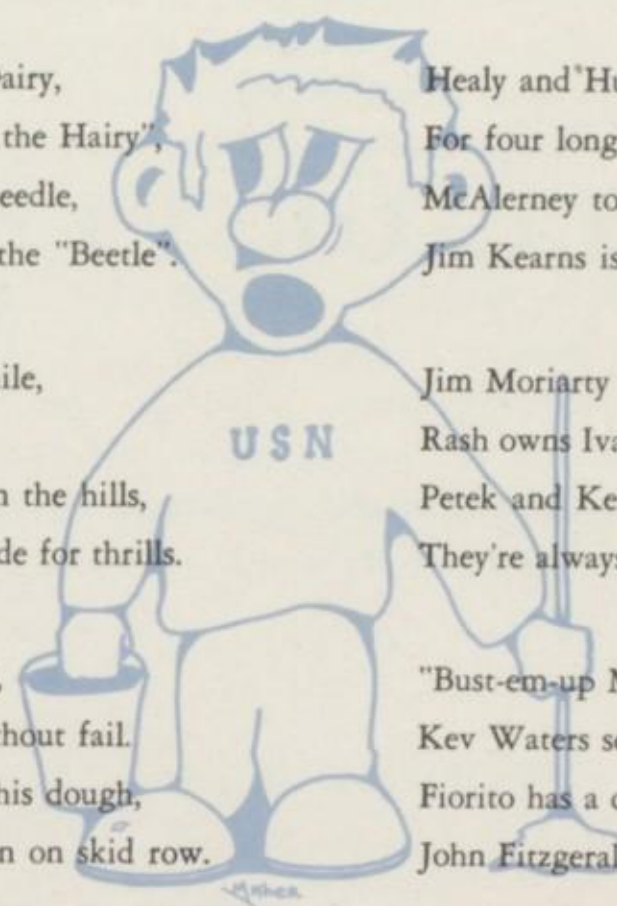

Healy and Hunt are teachers at Prep,
For four long years their classes have slept.
McAlerney to this day is the Greek-of-the-week,
Jim Kearns is a playboy, they call him "The Sheik".

Jim Moriarty is a famous tree surgeon,
Rash owns Ivar's where they make with the sturgeon.
Petek and Kenny own a penny arcade,
They're always subject to a law enforcement raid.

"Bust-em-up MacLean" is a sheriff from Texas,
Kev Waters sells bathing suits to the opposite sexes.
Fiorito has a construction company in Seattle,
John Fitzgerald never grew up. we gave him a rattle.

Sullivan and Tom Nolan are loggers in Maine,
They just couldn't stand that Seattle rain.
Thus have our brothers spread to the winds,
May the fates protect us for our many sins.

And so '51 has done quite well,
On the road to success nobody fell.
Although they view us with a bitter frown,
We tried out best to live it all down.

CLASS of 1952

Forging ahead as upperclassmen the class of 1952 opened an active year by electing presidents, Jerry Murphy (3A), Karl Voegtlin (3B), Jack George (3C) to lead their eighty-eight members... Moderators respectively for the classes were Frs. Renner, Sneeringer, and Hess, S. J.... Jim Haley was elected prefect of the junior Sodality, assisted by Tom Budinick and Ken Nyberg... On the gridiron field several juniors distinguished themselves, namely: Joe Quinn, Winn Brindle, Phil Clark, Chris Melgard, Lou Roselli, Pat Tomkins, Ron Farrell, and Karl Voegtlin... In the field of debating Jerry Murphy, Ken Nyberg, and John Topel represented the junior class... The PANTHER also attracted several energetic juniors as Jerry Murphy served as Sports Editor and Ron Cass as photographer... Succeeding these were: John Topel, Chief Editor; Mike Holmes, Sports Editor; John Ryan, Feature Editor; and Mike Dennehy and Joe Raymaker, News Editors... Joe Stocking was Circulation Editor... On the maple court Steve LaRiviere, Phil Clark, Karl Voegtlin, Joe Quinn, and Jack George provided the hustle... John Carroll led the B-squad... Charley Beytebiere, Jim McGrath, Pat Cook, and Mike Weber secured valuable parts in the Harlequin plays... Jerry Murphy served as Secretary of the student body... John Ryan and Bill Baldwin raced for the ski team in a successful year... Charley Beytebiere, Ron Farrell, Jerry Murphy, and Ken Nyberg manifested special loyalty to the Panther Club... Jack George served as Secretary of the Lettermen Club... The band found musical talent in Winn Brindle, Chris Melgard, Mike Weber, and Fred Lyons... In the intramural field Bob Carmody, Mike Holmes, Garth Houlihan, and Pat Tomkins sparked their home room teams... Baseball enthusiasts were Jack George, Lou Roselli, and Karl Voegtlin... Chris Melgard was the luminary on the track squad... Closing out the term a ten-man junior committee, headed by Jerry Murphy, staged the Prom at the Seattle Golf and Country Club... Next September will find these Prepsters in the role of seniors, as they go on to add to their class record.

CLASS of 1953

The sophomores began a very active year at Prep by electing four members to their class presidencies: Larry Gahan, 2A; Don Clark, 2B; Joe Scudder, 2C; and Mike Lyon, 2D... In the roles of moderator for the second year men were Father Falsetto, Father McDonnell, Mr. Keys, and Mr. Robinson... Larry Gahan served as prefect of the Sodality, assisted by secretary-treasurer Bill Clancy... Denny Murphy and Jim Roberts earned varsity letters in football... Standouts on the B-squad eleven were Jeff Pascoe, Leary Hambly, and Bill Hopper—Joe Meehan scored a touchdown in the Bellarmine game... Hal Cline and Pat Bouker placed second in "C" division debate at C. P. S.—other debaters included: King Dykeman, Greg Lundmark, Larry Gahan, Paul Swimelar, Joe Read, Hunter Haselton, Pat Olwell, Jack Pruss, Dick Ambur, and Tom Hoban... Led by Jim Harney and Larry Nord, 2A took the junior intramural football championship... Bill Clancy, Jack Clayton, Denny Murphy, and Jim Harney turned in fine performances on the B-basketball team... Aspiring journalists who scribed for the PANTHER included: Pat Gleeson, Paul Swimelar, King Dykeman, Pat Bouker, and Jim Murphy... The 2C intramural basketball champions, sparked by Bob Smith, Joe Scudder, Larry Hoyt, Don Clark, and Larry Nord almost upset the upper division finalists, 4A, for the school crown... Tom Roe skied to fame on his barrel staves... Ray Kealy assisted Father Sudmeier in the book store... A glance into the property room found Jim Higgins and Pat Coogan handling jerseys and other athletic equipment... The names of Pat Bouker, Mike Sullivan, Larry Keyser, Jim Dever, and Larry Gahan were found on the Honor Roll several times... The baseball diamond featured sophomores Bob Smith, Denny Murphy, Larry McCauley, Jim Harney, and Larry Hoyt... Ten lucky sophomores attended the Junior Prom; they constitute the committee for next year's dance... Summer will pass quickly for these men to find them as juniors at Seattle Prep.

CLASS of 1954

Seattle Prep gave a hearty welcome to a record number of one hundred and fifty freshmen... The eager frosh immediately surged forward by electing their class presidents: Jim Navone, 1A; Ted Gannon, 1B; Bookie Williams, 1C; Ed Hule, 1D... Overseers for the classes were Mr. Allen, S.J., Mr. O'Dea, S.J., Mr. Lucid, S.J., and Mr. Toner, S.J.... The Sodality formed into two groups to accommodate the large number of Sodalists... Top performers on Mr. Lucid's undefeated frosh football team included: Lee Stann, John Ditore, Ed Allen, Don Nottingham, John Marshbank, Jerry McAuliffe, Lee LaPierre, and Don McDonald... Jim Riley headed one of the frosh Sodalities... Jack Seitz was elected captain of the cub football eleven—other pigskin hustlers were Bob Hopcroft, Bill Deasy, and Ted Gannon... The freshmen brought in more subscriptions than any other class in the Curtis magazine drive... Bill Taylor, Ted Gannon, Fred Gockel, Jim McElhinney, Jim Heath, Larry Deutsch, and Gary Campbell played on Mr. Key's two basketball teams... Jack Giacobazzi, Jim Riley, Don Weyrick, and Ray Weber took the "laurels" in the frosh debate club which was moderated by Father Brady... Along with captain Clair Markey, Jim Weeks, John Cvitkovic, Paul Dempsey, Ed Hule, Lee Zwettler, and Pete Kendall displayed some fancy play on the frosh basketball five that might eventually merit them positions on Coach Goodwin's future varsity teams... In the field of journalism Jack Giacobazzi, Al Lizotte, and Tom DeMan represented the frosh class by serving as cub reporters on the school's monthly paper... The following frosh did not find Prep too hard, for their names appeared pretty regularly on the Honor Roll: Gary Campbell, Jim Riley, Bill Herber, Jim Kelleher, Dave McCulloch, Ed Gartland, Greg Gray, Jack Giacobazzi, Ron Miranda, and Jim Navone... At last June arrived and the frosh had plowed through their first year of Latin, Algebra, and Prep in general; thus they were ready to climb up one more peg to the level of sophomores.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student government is the vital factor in the coordination of all student activities at Prep. This year the student governing body of Prep, the Student Council, took up the task of directing the activities where the class of 1950 left off, and added new strength to that organization.

Tom Gahan, as President of the Associated Students of Seattle Prep, led the Council through a most successful year of advancement. Gahan was wholeheartedly assisted by the other A.S.S.P. officers, Vice-President John Haberle, and Secretary-Treasurer Jerry Murphy.

As its main purpose, the Council capably promotes all activities and encourages student participation in them. It strives to induce the classes and clubs to work as a unified group for the advancement of the entire school as well as for themselves.

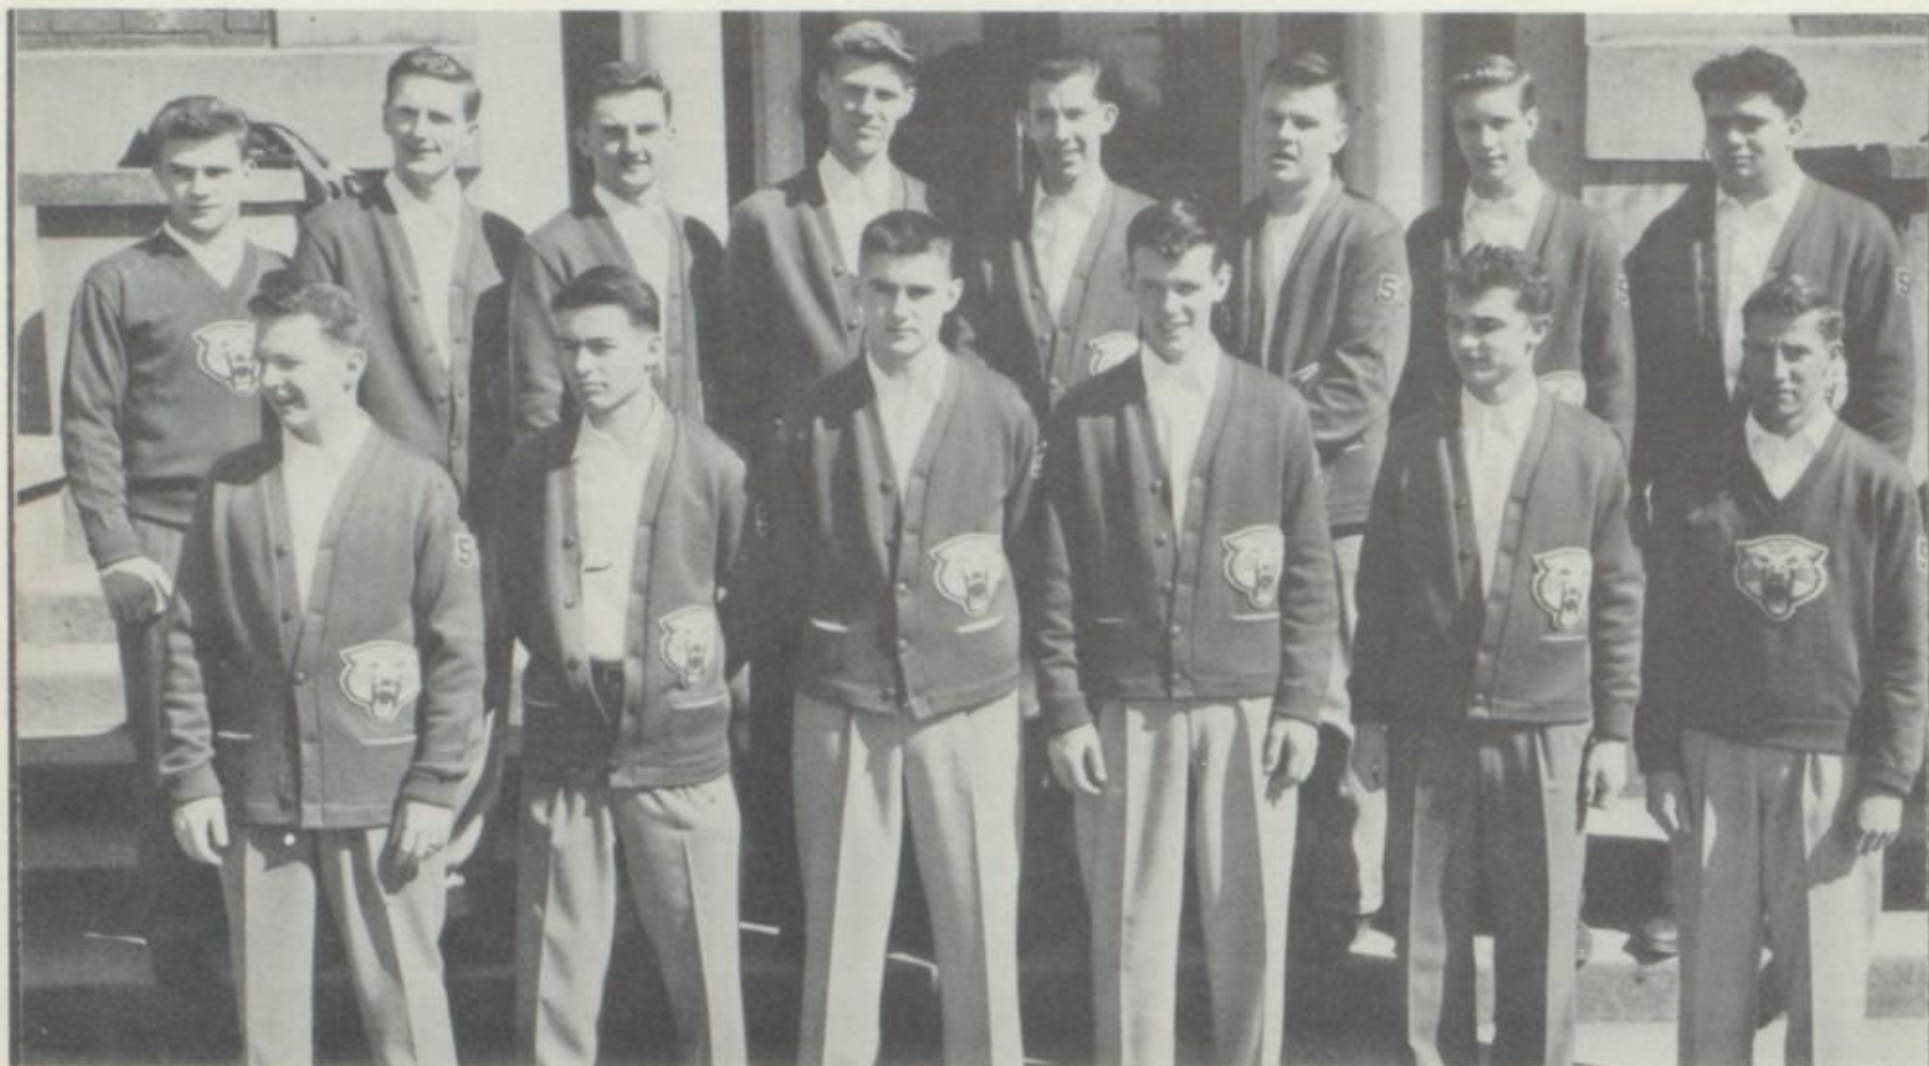

The Council is composed of all class and club presidents, and representatives of the Sodality and school publications. The A.S.S.P. officers are elected to office each spring by the student body.

The Rev. Christopher J. McDonnell, S. J., acts as moderator of the Student Council.

With an enlarged enrollment, the Panther Club of 1951 set out to do bigger and better things. Composed of a select group of upperclassmen, a Panther member can always be recognized by his royal blue sweater with a growling Panther head over the pocket. The purpose of this service organization is to promote a spirit of cooperation on the part of the student body, and to foster the activities which mean so much to the high school student. This year's club, under the able leadership of Bill Wilson and its advisor, Mr. E. J. Robinson, S.J., had one of its most successful years. Besides the highly successful Christmas party for the orphans at Sacred Heart Orphanage, the Panther Club supplied a greater number of more efficient ushers for all athletic, dramatic, and public speaking events than ever before. But the greatest success of all was the hilarious Christmas party held in the gym for the students and the faculty.

In the social field, a sports dance was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall to obtain money to finance various functions throughout the year.

STAFF

As is the custom at Seattle Prep, at the end of the first semester the management of the PANTHER changed hands. The 1951 editors continued to keep first class ratings for the paper, just as had their predecessors.

John Topel, the new Editor, earned his job by his work on the 1950 sports page. The new Associate Editors, Mike Dennehy and Joe Raymaker, merited their positions by working diligently as reporters. John Ryan's work on the former staff gained for him the job of Feature Editor. Mike Holmes assumed the sports editorship of the PANTHER.

The PANTHER circulation rose over the one thousand mark and thus was well received by outsiders as well as Prepsters.

"MIST BEFORE THE PERISCOPE"

The sea mystery, "Mist Before the Periscope", written and directed by Prep's Father Lanphier, was presented in January at the Women's Century Theatre.

Charley Beytebiere, as a young naval enthusiast, held the lead role. Tim Flood played the hero of the play.

"Swede" Johnson and Jim McGrath were featured in two naval officer roles. Doug Downey and Jim Rash played the parts of the spies and murderers. Tom Gahan had a part of dramatic oratory; Dick Blewett was the tough cop.

There were also many minor roles in the cast of nearly twenty Prepsters.

The Harlequin Club, Prep's acting society, had a highly successful year. Not only did the Prep actors present two smash hits of their own, but they also portrayed all the male roles in the Holy Names spring production.

Dick Blewett ruled as club president. The secretary of the Harlequins was Denny Ward.

The director of the Harlequins was Father Leo Lanphier, S. J. His unceasing labors have gained for Prep's actors an excellent reputation.

As the athletic season progressed the Harlequins provided entertainment at most of the pep rallies.

After the Saturday night productions of their two plays, the Harlequins staged dances in the ballroom of the Women's Century Theatre. A mixer was also given at the K. of C. during the football season.

REVEREND LEO F. LANPHIER, S. J.

The Rev. Leo F. Lanphier, S. J., certainly deserves a commendable round of applause for his success with the Harlequin Club.

This was Father's fourth year at Prep, as moderator of Adelpia dramatics. Since his arrival he has directed nine smash hits. Two of Father's productions, "Hullabulu" and "Mist Before the Periscope", were written by him.

Besides his duties at Prep, Father Lanphier also managed the Seattle University Dramatic Club.

So to a priest who has worked so zealously for the better name of Seattle Prep, the class of 1951 wishes to extend their sincere thanks for the past, and their best wishes for the future.

"HOME OF THE BRAVE"

The Harlequin Club opened the dramatic season in late September at the Women's Century Theatre with the presentation of an all senior drama, "Home of the Brave". The play dealt with the story of six GI's on a secret mission and the feeling of racial difference that existed among them.

Tom Gahan, as a Jewish soldier in the lead role of Coney, was made the object of hate and prejudice. Finch, Coney's buddy, was played by Marsh Fitzgerald.

Ed Maher portrayed the pettish Corporal Everitt; Dick Blewett took the part of the pessimistic Mingo. Tim Flood was the doctor, Pat Manning the commanding officer.

SENIORS

Under the capable direction of Father Joseph Logan, S. J., the senior Sodality had a more than successful year. With Prefect Bill Wilson, Vice-Prefect Joe Navone, and Secretary Ernie Ferullo showing the way, the senior Sodality undertook many new projects as well as carrying out the old ones.

A daily rosary devotion in the chapel at noon was inaugurated and very well attended. The project of helping the bed-ridden patients at Firland Sanatorium was a success also. The attendance at the monthly Communion breakfasts was far better this year than in former years.

A school-wide Lenten collection which netted over $600 was taken up under the direction of senior Sodalist, Bill Wilson.

The annual senior retreat, held at Port Townsend, received such enthusiastic response that two retreats were necessary to accommodate everyone.

Individually and as a group, the senior Sodality left a remarkable record—a record which Seattle Prep can be proud of.

JUNIORS

The Sodality of the junior class during the school year 1950-51 was moderated by Father Joseph Logan, S. J. Jim Haley in his third year as prefect, vice-prefect Tom Budinick, and secretary-treasurer Ken Nyberg comprised the Sodality officer staff, and they diligently carried out their appointed duties.

Spiritual exercises and daily rosaries comprised the bulk of Sodality activities; however, a monthly Communion breakfast was established and attended by the majority of the Sodalists.

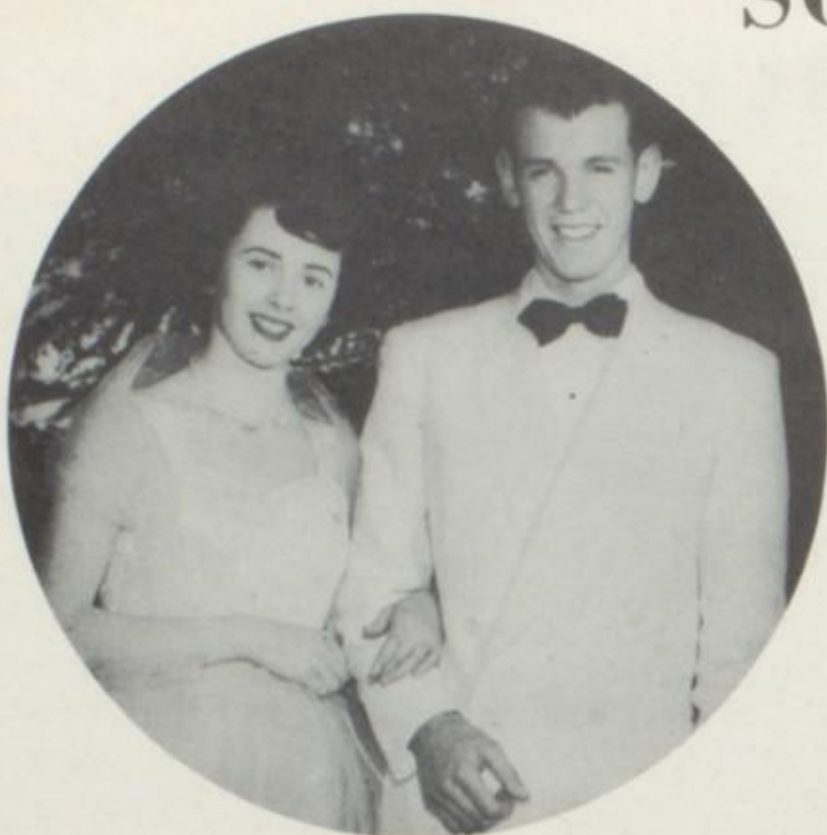

The juniors combined efforts with the seniors on all yearly Sodality drives. Christmas gifts for Italian seminarians, clothes drives for the Eskimos, and a book drive for Firland Sanitorium, were the chief undertakings of these energetic Sodalists.

Although only a negligible amount of temporal value remains to show for this past year, each junior Sodalist knows that the spiritual benefits bestowed upon him are numberless and bountiful, and that God is pleased with his labors.

JUNIOR PROM

Prom Queen and King

White dinner jackets, formals, flowers, and shiny cars! No, it was not a funeral or wedding—it was the Junior Prom.

Having enjoyed various "coketail" and dinner parties at private homes and restaurants, the Prepsters and their dates drove out to the Seattle Golf and Country Club for three hours of fun and dancing. Among those attending the Prom, there was one couple which stood above the rest. They were the king, and his escort, the queen.

This year King Bill Wilson and Queen Patty McGough of Holy Rosary reigned over the Seattle Prep Prom.

The music has ended, the parties are over, but the memories are eternal.

CHEERLEADERS

During the football season the Prep rooting section was organized and led by three spirited seniors. Lanky John Haberle earned the title of yell king, while his flankers on either side were Tom Greif and Tim Ryan. Their leadership was very commendable.

Probably the greatest burst of school spirit during the gridiron season occurred after the Bremerton game. All the Prepsters who were in the Navy City rushed out of the bleachers and carried the team off the field. The hard working cheerleaders were at least partly responsible for this tremendous display of loyalty.

With the introduction of the basketball season, new cheerleaders performed their spirit-moving antics before the student body. Loyal Tom Gahan climaxed his great year as student body president by leading the Prep throngs with enthusiastic cheers. Other yell leaders for the Panthers were John Youmans, Pat Manning, and Dick Blewett.

Besides performing at the games and pep rallies these cheerleaders also put up clever signs in the school halls to back the team. At the State Tournament these cheerleaders aroused the cries of the Prepsters to such a point that hoarse voices became the common fad.

PROM COMMITTEE

When the month of May is mentioned to any Prep upperclassman, he immediately perks up and his thoughts and words converge on the plans, anticipation, and excitement of one thing—"The Junior Prom."

This year the not-to-be-forgotten Junior Prom was held on Friday night, May 11th, at the Seattle Golf and Country Club. Bob Hawkes and his orchestra added the melodious strains to the event, while intermission entertainment was provided by the Seattle University Quartet.

The Junior Class with a special committee of ten annually takes on the responsibility of staging for the graduating seniors their last big fling at Prep. This year the Prom Committee presented a dance they can well be proud of. Jerry Murphy headed the committee; other members included: Bill Baldwin, Phil Clark, Ron Farrell, Jack George, Steve LaRiviere, Chris Melgard, Mike Murphy, Joe Quinn, and Karl Voegtlin.

Along with the seniors and juniors present at the Prom, there were also ten fortunate sophomores who will form next year's committee. They were: Don Clark, Larry Gahan, Pat Glesson, Bill Hooper, Dan Lenoue, Joe Meehan, Denny Murphy, Jeff Pascoe, Jim Roberts, and Joe Scudder.

ORCHESTRA

The Pep Band is a group of loyal and true Prepsters. Each noon hour these talented musicians sacrifice their lunch period to practice in the Physics Lab., under the direction of Mr. Gillingham, S.J. These hours of hard practice are undertaken by the band members so they can play at assemblies, games, and other school functions.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomore Sodality proved themselves to be as active as any other Sodality in the school. Under the capable leadership of Prefect Larry Gahan and Secretary-Treasurer Bill Clancy, the Sodalists undertook various material and spiritual projects.

The sophomores distinguished themselves by bringing in more clothes for the Alaskan clothes drive than any other Sodality. A rather successful stamp drive was staged under the sponsorship of the second year Sodalists. Each sophomore also contributed to the Lenten self-denial collections for the missions.

Naturally the Sodality had frequent Communion breakfasts. Besides the Sodalists said rosaries and had benedictions offered for various special intentions.

Father Sexton started out as moderator of this Sodality, but upon his appointment to St. Joseph's, Father Falsetto became adviser.

FRESHMEN

The frosh Sodality, under the motto of "Regina Pacis", has done much to increase the spiritual welfare of the freshmen at Prep. After a period of several months probation, the freshmen Sodalists were admitted into the Sodality of Our Lady in an impressive ceremony at the end of the year.

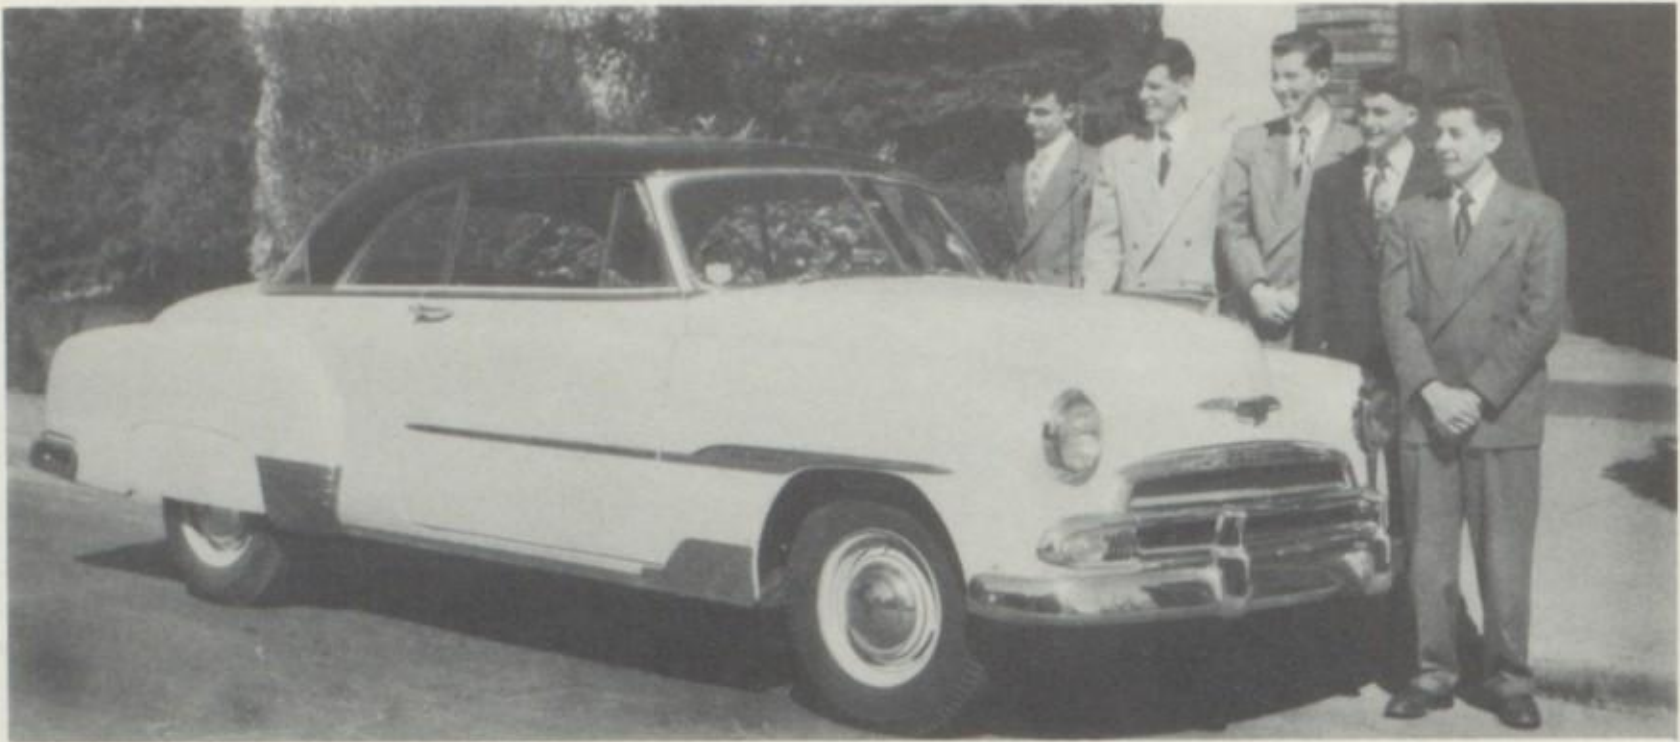

The Sodality Prefect for 1A and 1B was Jim Riley. The 1C and 1D divisions did not elect a prefect this year. The faculty moderators were Mr. O'Dea, S. J. and Mr. Toner, S. J.

One of the Sodality's functions was to receive Holy Communion in a body once a month. Another project consisted of collecting money for Father Endal's mission in Alaska. In addition to their weekly meetings, the Sodalists also attended Mass on an appointed day once a week.

With the example set so far, these Sodalists undoubtedly will obtain many graces for their fine work.

INTRA-SCHOOL

WASHINGTON STATE ORATORY

With the Washington State Resources Contest, there is mentioned but one illustrious Prep name—the name of Bill Wilson. On February 20th before a joint session of the state senate and house, Wilson took first place in the 1951 Washington Resources Contest. As an award for his twelve minute speech on "Greater Seattle, Inc." Bill received a new fully equipped "Bel-Air" Chevrolet. Before capturing the state title, Prep's great orator had defeated contestants in school, city, and congressional district eliminations.

Besides the car, Bill won $200 cash, a Toastmasters' Club plaque, and many other prizes in the elimination contests. Because he produced the state winner, Mr. O'Dea, S.J., Wilson's coach, was given a radio-phonograph combination; the school in turn obtained a set of Encyclopedia Britannica.

SENIOR ELOCUTION

The Senior Elocution Contest, held April 27th, produced a variety of dramatic and comic pieces. Marsh Fitzgerald dramatized a selection from Marlowe's "Faustus." Another dramatic interpretation was Tom Gahan's "Shylock, the Jew." Ed Maher gave a humorous portrayal of "Saturday Night Fish Fry." Adding the Shakespearian touch to the contest, Pat Manning chose a soliloquy from "Hamlet." One of Robert Browning's famous dramatic monologues, "My Last Duchess," was narrated by Jerry Murphy. Jim McGrath recited Robert Service's immortal poem, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." Inserting that Phil Harris style, Ron Tracy presented "Loaded Pistols and Loaded Dice". The winner was Pat Manning.

First Row: Tom Gahan, Marsh Fitzgerald, Jerry Murphy.
Second Row: Jim McGrath, Pat Manning, Ed Maher.

SPEAKING

Ken Nyberg, Marsh Fitzgerald, Tom Gahan, Bill Wilson, Jerry Jager.

HEARST ORATORY

For the second consecutive year, Tom Gahan, popular student body president captured first place in the school finals of the Hearst Oratory Contest. The elimination was held March 29th at Seattle University's Little Theatre. Tom's victory qualified him for further competition against State Catholic high schools. Gahan's six minute speech was entitled, "George Washington, Father of His Country."

Other Prepsters in the school finals besides Gahan were: Jerry Jager, Bill Wilson, Marsh Fitzgerald, and Ken Nyberg. Pat Manning served as chairman.

The contest is sponsored annually by the united efforts of the Hearst newspapers. If a contestant emerges victorious in the various local contests, he then goes on to the Pacific Coast and national finals, where he competes for the $1,000 prize.

JUNIOR ELOCUTION

First Row: Pat Carroll, Jack Giacobazzi, Larry Gahan, John Owens.
Second Row: Dan Lenoue, Hal Cline, Jim Maher, Ray Weber, John Conway.

Some promising speaking talent was manifested by the freshmen and sophomores in the Junior Elocution Contest, held in the first part of May. John Conway enacted a piece entitled, "From L'Aiglon." Larry Gahan soliloquized a speech from William Shakespeare's "Hamlet." For his selection John Giacobazzi picked a scene from Christopher Marlowe's "Jew of Malta." Dan Lenoue held the audience spellbound with Poe's "Tell-tale Heart." A dramatic interpretation of "Clarence's Dream" was given by sophomore Jim Maher. John Owens amused the parents and students with the nose scene from "Cyrano De Bergerac." Freshman Ray Weber orated a piece called, "Invective Against Corry." The alternates for the contest were Harold Cline and Pat Corral. Dan Lenoue won the contest.

First Row: Jim McGrath, Ken Nyberg, John Topel, Charlie Beytebiere, Jerry Murphy.

SENIORS-JUNIORS

The Debate Club made quite an impressive record for itself this past year. Jerry Jager served as club president; Pat Manning was vice-president. Mr. Richard O'Dea, S. J., competently coached the debaters. Here are the results of the four college tournaments and the Gold Medal Contest that Prep speakers participated in:

Seattle University—The four man team of John Cogan, Ken Nyberg, Jerry Jager, and Marsh Fitzgerald won second place in debate; Bill Wilson took first in oratory. Jerry Murphy received a second in extemp, and Tom Gahan merited number one positions in scholarship and extemp.

Gonzaga University—Wilson and Gahan came in first in debate, Jager and Manning third. Gahan and Manning won first and second in scholarship, respectively, and Wilson carried away second in oratory.

College of Puget Sound—The two teams of Manning-Jager and Wilson-Gahan tied for third in debate. Gahan copped second in interpretative reading, and Wilson was awarded second in oratory.

Washington State College—Manning and Jager represented Prep in the state tournament, and they came in second.

Gold Medal Contest—Wilson, Gahan, Manning, and Jager vied for school honors; the latter winning.

SOPHOMORES

Since so many sophomores turned out for debate this year, a separate debate club was formed for the second year men. Listed as teams, the members included: King Dykeman and Greg Lundmark, Larry Gahan and Paul Swimelar, Pat Bouker and Hal Cline, Grant Gauger and Bill Veit, Dick Ambur and Tom Hoban, Joe Read and Hunter Hazelton, Jack Pruss and Pat Olwell. Other members were Pat Brennan, Bill Mallow, Larry Nord, and Don Clark.

During the first three months of the school year various topics were assigned to the debaters by their coach, Mr. Richard O'Dea, S.J. Then the sophomores took up the 1950-1951 high school debate question, "Resolved that the Federal Government should adopt a substantial expansion of the Welfare State".

Ten lucky second year debaters attended the forensic tournament at College of Puget Sound in Tacoma on March 8, 9, and 10. Larry Gahan and Hal Cline entered extemp speaking, and each reached the semi-finals. Pat Bouker and Hal Cline copped second place in class "C" university style debate.

LETTERMEN

First Row: Don Maddox, Bill Collier, Dave Dorgan, Swede Johnson, Skip Kays, Jack Moss, John Fitzgerald, Tim Flood, John Youmans.

This year the Lettermen Club elected John Petosa, the school's only four year letterman, as its president. Assisting the president in 1950-1951 was Jack Moss in the office of vice-president, and Jack George, the secretary-treasurer. Father Paul Weissenberg, S. J., acted as moderator.

In order to qualify for membership in this, the school's most well known club, a student must make a varsity letter in a major sport and must go through the customary initiation. Those sports for which letters given are football, basketball, baseball, and track. The letters are presented after each season in the gymnasium and the initiations are held three times a year at Fox Point on Lake Washington.

CLUB

As many Prepsters have learned from experience, the chief duty of the Lettermen Club is to maintain discipline around Adelpia and at all student gatherings.

Organized in patrols, one for each day of the week, the lettermen check up on Prepsters committing such crimes, as smoking within two blocks of the school, littering the grounds, walking on the gym floor, and eating in the gym. Violators, of course, are punished by spats given at regular intervals throughout the year on the front steps of the school.

The recipients of these spats are often left with a section of the body that is a little sore and red. But soon one forgets these pains, and again makes friends with the lettermen.

Last May the classmates of 1951 elected those whom they wished to edit their senior yearbook. Their selections resulted in the choice of Ed Maher as Editor-in-Chief, who handled not only the planning and the make-up of the book, but also all the character drawings. Feature Editor Pat Kelly directed the write-ups of the seniors, activities, and other articles. In the office of Business Manager, Bill Wilson took care of the covers and pictures. Denny Ward, the Sports Editor, organized the athletic division.

The Rev. Leo F. Lanphier, S.J., was faculty supervisor of the ECHO.

Besides the regular staff members, other fourth year men who wrote various copy for the ECHO were: Jack Riley, Bob Lester, Bill Holland, Joe Navone, Tom Nolan, and Tim Flood. Underclassmen who assisted the editors included: Jim Navone, Larry Gahan, Ken Nyberg, John Topel, and Jerry Murphy.

The entire staff of the 1951 ECHO sincerely hopes that this year's annual completely satisfies the expectations of all, the seniors primarily, so that now and even in future years they can recall the cherished memories of Seattle Prep—their classmates, their teachers, and their activities.

ATHLETIC

Certainly Seattle Prep will never forget the great football and basketball teams fielded in the past year, and just as surely the students will not forget the man behind these teams, Coach John Goodwin. No sooner had Prep's popular coach said farewell to the football eleven which he had led to second place in the Cross-State League, then he took over the basketball squad. He started in on the job of coaching that team to the first State Tournament berth in Seattle Prep history and to sixth place in the state.

Besides these athletic accomplishments, Mr. Goodwin is also one of the most skillful teachers on the faculty. So to Coach Goodwin, the class of 1951 extends the best of luck in future years.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

It has been a long time since Prep has enjoyed a better football season than this year of 1950. The six wins, one loss, one tie record, compiled by Prep's stalwart eleven, proved to be one of the best in the state.

Opening with a decisive win over O'Dea, the Panthers followed with a victory over Highline, but only a week later they suffered their only loss of the season at the hands of the Everett Seagulls. After two easy wins over Bellingham and Lincoln, Prep met Bremerton in the Navy city and handed the Wildcats their first defeat in eighteen games.

In their eighth and final game of the year, the Panthers met Stadium for the Cross-State League title and the game ended in a tie, leaving the Panthers in second place, the highest they had ever finished.

Stadium High School came, saw, and went home happy after earning a 6 to 6 tie with Seattle Prep at Memorial Stadium Thursday night.

The stalemate was a severe blow to the Panthers, who were shooting for their first Cross-State League championship and, up to last night, were the favorites to cop the title.

For Stadium, who now must face Bellingham and Everett, the game opened the door for a chance to take it all. Should they lose one, Prep will be right back in contention, despite an earlier loss to the Seagulls.

Lincoln, a three-touchdown underdog, held the Panthers except for a weaving, 65-yard touchdown dash by Skip Kays in the opening quarter. But Lincoln had no offensive punch to match its defense. The

A 155-pound package of lightning broke across the rial Stadium gridiron Thursday night to give Seattle Prep to 7 win over Bellingham School.

Running from the fullba "Skip" Kays sparked an lifeless Panther team to touchdowns in the second scoring one himself and up another.

Trailing 7-0 at the start third quarter, Prep's Bolla tosa picked up Red Raider off on the 4-yard line and r to Kays. Some seconds late climaxed a 97-yard tightw down the sidelines with t Prep TD.

PREP 18—O'DEA 6

The opening of the Catholic Memorial Stadium proved to be a glorious day as John Petosa led the Panthers to their first victory. The Prep team was stymied by an inspired O'Dea team throughout the entire first half but the second half was Prep's game all the way. In the third quarter the line started to tear holes in the O'Dea defense and Prep marched 60 yards to a touchdown pushed over by Petosa. Minutes later Pat Roddy threw a short pass to Petosa who caught it on the O'Dea 35 and went all the way to pay dirt. In the last quarter Prep marched 40 yards on a sustained drive with Petosa going over from the 4. O'Dea scored in the late minutes on four straight passes, with Phillips throwing to Broderick for six points.

PREP 25—HIGHLINE 7

Prep looked like championship material in this game with Skip Kays and Bill Collier leading the team. Kays started the scoring in the first quarter on a 26 yard run through right tackle for a touchdown. Skip increased the lead with a 63 yard punt return early in the second period that was good for another six points. Minutes later Collier, supported by superb blocking raced 76 yards down the field for Prep's third touchdown. In the third period Collier took a reverse from Kays on a punt return and ran 77 yards for the Panther's final score. Late in the fourth quarter Highline recovered a Prep fumble and drove 49 yards for a touchdown with Retinski carrying the ball over.

PREP 13 — EVERETT 20

A fast breaking, hard charging Everett backfield proved to be Prep's downfall as the Gulls got off to a 13-0 lead before the Panthers began to roll. Everett made their first touchdown on a 7 yard thrust by Ken Borden, and their second score came on a 43 yard scamper by Carl Rosk in the second period. Nelson converted. Prep came back with a 65 yard march climaxed by Paul Cruden's 3 yard smash at center. Skip Kays carried most of the punch in the march. Jim Harney missed the conversion. A pass from Grandberg to Thieme netted the final tally for Everett. Nelson ran the extra point. Prep finished the scoring with a 12 yard pass from Joe Quinn to Karl Voegtlin. A pass from Quinn to Phil Clark netted the extra point. John Petosa and Jerry Calabrese starred on defense with Petosa making 22 tackles.

PREP 19 — BELLINGHAM 7

The Panthers came back in the second half to win their first Cross State League game after trailing 7-0 in a lifeless first half. The raiders got their lone tally on a quarterback sneak by Bard after the play was set up by Bellingham's one-man team, Monte Bianchi. Kurtz converted. Coach John Goodwin won this game by putting some desperately needed fight into the Panther eleven during the half. Prep got its first touchdown on the opening kick-off of the second half when Kays took a reverse from Bob Petosa and raced 97 yards for a touchdown. In the same quarter Kays returned a punt to the Prep 45 and from there Roddy, Kays, Petosa and Cruden took it to the 6 where Quinn passed to Voegtlin for the touchdown. Roselli converted. Runs by Cruden and John Petosa set up the final scoring with Petosa going over from the 7 yard line. Kays and Bob Petosa carried most of the offensive punch for Prep.

PREP 6—LINCOLN 0

Midway in the first period Skip Kays took the ball around his own left end and raced 65 yards for the only score of the game. He shook off a few would-be tacklers and then he headed for the side line stripe, where he ran straight down the field for the touchdown. Late in the first period the Panthers lost the services of a great back when John Petosa broke his collar bone.

Prep looked very good throughout the remainder of the game but the Panthers were kept from scoring by a strong Lincoln defense. Except for a 40 yard run by Bill Collier late in the second half, it was much a defensive game for both teams. Other standouts for the Panthers were Voegtlin, Roddy and Quinn.

PREP 18—BREMERTON 0

A determined Panther eleven out-fought, out-charged and out-played the highly touted Bremerton Wildcats who were gunning for their 18th straight victory. The Panthers played a great game in all departments. The defense platoon held the Wildcats to practically no yardage. Jack Ladner and "Merky" Waters, who intercepted three passes, led the way. The Panthers did things the particular way on offense, combining three 47 yard gains for their touchdowns. With two minutes to go in the first half, Skip Kays broke off left guard and raced 47 yards to give Prep a 6-0 lead at half time. In the third quarter Kays was robbed of an 87 yard run by a penalty. Four plays later Quinn threw Ladner a perfect pass that netted 47 yards and a T.D. The final six points were scored by Bill Collier who received a Bremerton pass on Prep's 47 yard line and behind some good blocking he scored without a hand being laid on him.

PREP 39 — BELLARMINE 7

Prep's crushing ground attack proved to be too much for Bellarmine, as the Panthers trounced the Bells on a wet, mud-covered field. Soon after the kick-off Prep took the ball down the field on a sustained drive where Jack Ladner rushed over from the 5. On the next series of Prep downs, the Panthers took the ball down to the 3 yard line where Bill Collier smashed over for the score. In the second period, Prep showed superior line play when Paul Cruden scored from the 10 without being touched. During the second half Skip Kays netted the longest run of the game on a 35 yard run around left end which was good for another six points. Ten plays later Kays scored again on a 15 yard romp. With the score 33-0 Bellarmine put up a sustained drive with Jim George scoring from the 5. Joe Meehan, after picking up a Bellarmine fumble, made the final Prep tally when he ran 30 yards for a touchdown. Ladner, Roddy and Bob Petosa made the conversions for Prep and George converted for Bellarmine.

PREP 6 — STADIUM 6

The score well tells the story of this ball game, for Prep had the leading ground attack but Stadium had the superior passing attack. With a few less penalties or pass interceptions, either team could have scored again and won the ball game. The Panthers were the first to score when a pass from Quinn to Kays was good for 33 yards and that put the ball deep in Stadium territory. On the next play the Tigers intercepted a pass on their own 3 yard line but their luck back-fired when on the first play Deuchler recovered a Stadium fumble on the 4. Two plays later Roddy scored on a quarterback sneak. Roselli's try-for-point was wide. The Tigers came back a few minutes later with a pass from Schlosstein to Dillion which was good for 41 yards and a touchdown. Dillion's place kick missed the uprights. The main factor for the Tigers was the passing of Hershey and Schlosstein. The mainstay of the Panther eleven was the strong drive of the forward wall.

they trailed by only 31-30. After Rod Walker had made it 32-30 Skip Kays evened the count at 32-all, scoring on a fast break.

GRIEF BUCKETS WINNER
There were 2 1/2 minutes remaining when Don Fleming got the lead back again for N. C. with two foul shots. Again the Panthers tied it at 34-all as John Haberle scored with the clock showing two minutes left in the game.

Then at 1:40 Tom Grief scored the final and game-winning field goal on a rebound. Voegtlin missed a foul shot with 40 seconds to go, but the desperate Indians couldn't gain possession of the ball and the Panthers stalled out the final seconds.

It didn't take a shrewd judge of basketball to recognize the difference between Ballard and Highline Thursday evening. The difference was one man—Don McDougall.

McDOUGALL STARS
The junior forward who last year was doing his basketboating for Highline's bitter Puget Sound League rival Renton scattered 20 points through the hoop in one of the most amazing long-range shooting exhibitions seen in many a state classic.

MOSS INSPIRATIONAL AWARD

Friday night's semi-final round battles it will be Prep vs. Yakima in the 8 o'clock opener and Highline vs. Walla Walla, conqueror by 42-38 of South Kitsap's 1950 champions.

Highline's victory celebration was cut short, however, when the Pirate followers learned that their ace guard, Ron Luthy, had fractured a thumb in the final moments of the Ballard tussle.

Consolation-round games saw Hoquiam edge Clarkston, 42-40; Everett defeat Bellevue, 57-42; Richmond eliminate Longview 47-32 and Burlington beat Vancouver, 48-42, in overtime.

Johnny Goodwin's Panthers gave the customers a sample of the hustle which carried them into their first state meet when they edged the Spokane champions, who, incidentally, are not short of that same ingredient themselves.

PREP TAKES LEAD

Prep was never behind in the first quarter after Skip Kays got the game's first point on the foul line. The teams reached the quarter with the Panthers hanging tenaciously to a 9-8 lead. But North Central tied it at 9-9, again at 14-14 and finally at 15-all before Darrell Kuelpman scored a field goal that sent the Indians ahead for the first time in the game at 17-15.

North Central continued the surge and ran up a 25-19 advantage—their widest of the game—before the Panthers started to

JACK MOSS

PREP

The Panthers lost their opening game of the season to Lakeside by the score 42-38 in the Lion's gym. In spite of their advantage of height and speed Prep couldn't get rolling, because of very poor passing. Moss was the leading Prep scorer with 13 points.

LAKESIDE

PREP

In spite of a shakey first half Prep came back to hand the State Champions their only defeat of the year 44-36. During the first half it was all Highline, but the in the second half Haberle and Moss paced the Panthers, as they came from behind to win. Prep looked very impressive as they controlled the backboard and displayed a smooth working floor game. Haberle racked up 18 points for scoring honors.

HIGHLINE

PREP

In the first game of the series with Bothell, Prep looked like a well-rounded team as they won handily 56-43 with eight players breaking into the scoring column. Haberle and Moss were again the leading scorers. The second game was nip and tuck all the way with the score being 43-43 at the end. Bothell squeaked out a 47-46 victory in overtime. Moss lead Prep with 10 points.

BOTHELL

PREP

After leading during the entire first half Prep had to come from behind in the final minutes to beat a red hot Marquette team 50-48. Karl Voegtlin came in in the second half to score 14 points and walk off with the scoring honors. Callero was next with 12.

MARQUETTE

PREP

The Panthers started off with a bang and kept up that pace in the second quarter to go out with a comfortable lead at the half. In the third period the Panthers began to tire a little and with five minutes to go in the final quarter, Gonzaga took over the lead. However, sparked by Quinn, Collier, and Kays, Prep regained the lead and won 37-33.

BELLARMINE

Bellarmino took the first game 31-26, as the Blue and White didn't show their fine floor play as they had in former games. Voegtlin was high with 11. The second contest was all Prep as they won handily 53-33. The game's main feature was the defense the Millerites put up against the Bells in the first half allowing them to score only 3 field goals. Voegtlin took the scoring honors with 18 and was followed by Haberle and Moss with 13 apiece.

LINCOLN

In the first game the Abes played a steady brand of basketball while Prep played a hot and cold game by going into scoring spurts and then slackening off. Lincoln came out on top 49-43. Voegtlin paced the Panthers with 12 points. The second game was just the opposite, for the Panthers held a comfortable lead during most of the game and came out on top 53-43. Voegtlin again was high point man for Prep with 28 points.

STADIUM

Prep gained its first Cross-State victory by defeating Stadium 39-27. The highlight of the game was the fine play of Tom Greif in the second half. He put in 8 points in the third quarter to clinch the game for the Panthers and was high for the game with 12. In the second game Prep took an early lead and held it until the fourth quarter and then lost 48-47. Prep was without the services of Voegtlin who was injured. Haberle was high for Prep with 16, followed by Moss with 15.

BREMERTON

The Panthers lost both contests to the Wildcats in the final seconds, after leading throughout most of the game. In the first encounter Karl Voegtlin was the mainstay for Prep scoring 31 points. The Cats won 50-48. In the second game the Panthers successfully froze the ball for over a minute only to have Bremerton steal it and score the winning basket with eight seconds left to play to win 51-50. Voegtlin and Moss paced Prep with 19 and 13 points respectively.

PREP

For the sixth year in a row the Panthers took the series from the Irish; this time two games to one. Prep won the first one easily by the score of 42-31 with Voegtlin and Haberle carrying the load for Prep with 14 and 12 points respectively. O'Dea took the second game 36-34 after the Panthers had led for most of the game. Jerry Kain put in a long two hander from the middle of the floor, with eight seconds to go, to give the Irish the victory. Voegtlin paced the Panthers with 16 points. In the third game Prep led all the way after taking a first quarter lead of 7 points. It was the consistent shooting and fine floor play of the entire team which insured the victory. The final score was 42-35. Haberle was high with 12.

O'DEA

PREP

The Panthers took two hard-fought games from the Seagulls this season. In the first encounter the Prepsters had a scant lead in the last few minutes when Moss made a basket to put the game on ice. The final score was 45-41. Haberle and Voegtlin paced the Panthers with 15 and 14 points, respectively. In the second game Prep came back after being behind by 4 points at the half to win 43-37. Voegtlin hit for 16 points.

EVERETT

PREP

Prep took their final two games from the Bells to end up in second place in the Cross-State League. The first game was marked by the fine floor play of Skip Kays and the shooting of John Haberle who was high for the game with 22. Prep came out on top 61-52. In the second game it was again the shooting of Haberle who was high with 20 points, and the floor play of Kays along with the shooting and backboard work of Voegtlin that won the game for the Panthers 60-44.

TACOMA DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Prep qualified for the State Tournament by taking 3 consecutive games from the leading Tacoma schools. The Panthers after starting slowly downed Stadium 43-35 in the first game mainly through the consistent play of Tom Greif and the second half shooting of Karl Voegtlin. In the second game Prep took the Lincoln Abes 43-39. Lincoln had the lead during most of the first half but the fine shooting of Quinn and Voegtlin in the second half spurred the Panthers on to victory. Voegtlin scored 25 points. A spirited Prep team took the final game from Lincoln 46-39. It was the fine board work and shooting of Haberle and Voegtlin which spear-headed the victory. Voegtlin potted 18 points.

WASHINGTON STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

In their first appearance in the State Tournament the Panthers made a very fine showing for themselves by walking off with the sixth place trophy and John Haberle making the All-State team. Prep took their first game 48-40 by staving off a scrappy Bellevue five. Haberle was high man for the game with 20 points. In the second game the Panthers slipped by North Central of Spokane 36-34 on a last minute tip-in by Tom Greif. The game was close all the way with the lead changing several times. Haberle again was high scorer for the game, this time with 14 points. The first defeat for the Blue and White came in the third game, at the hands of Yakima. Paced by Allen Perry the Pirates took over the lead in the third quarter and never relinquished it; the final score was 45-36. Voegtlin was the leading scorer with 18 points. In the final game Prep suffered a 47-40 loss at the hands of Walla Walla. The Panthers led all the way until the fourth quarter when Wa-Hi took the lead and went on to win. Haberle was high scorer for the game with 14 points.

SKI TEAM

This year's ski team, one of the strongest high school squads in the Northwest, distinguished itself by a very successful competitive season.

Paced by Captain Fritz Holt and Bill Baldwin, the team started off its commendable season with a second place among sixteen other western state high schools in the "Beta Cap" Invitational Meet.

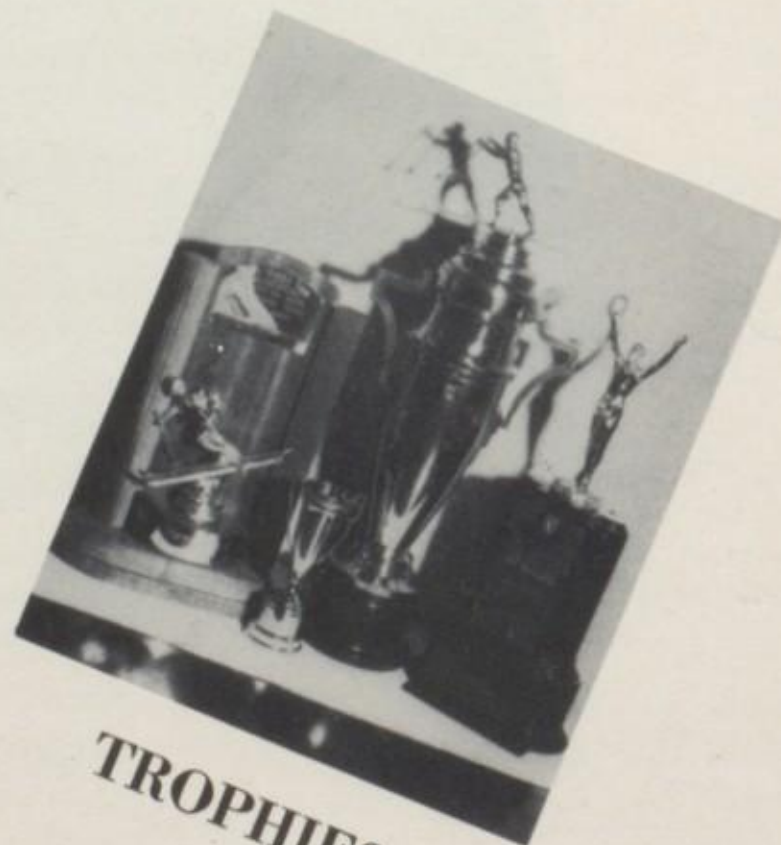

The ski quintet then copped a first place over the best teams in the state in the Wenatchee High Invitational Alpine Combined. Fritz Holt, John Cogan, and Bill Baldwin turned in two very smooth runs on the slalom courses for a second, third, and fifth respectively in the invitational combined.

Still elated by these victories, the potent slat squad went on to place well in a Seattle high school slalom, with John Ryan as the individual star. Next the jumping team of Fritz Holt, John Cogan, and Ron McMullen piled up enough combined points with the cross-country five to establish Prep as a strong contender in the upper bracket of city ski teams for the combined title.

Just one week later, for the first time in the history of the school, this year's mighty ski squad brought home the coveted All-City 4-Way combined team trophy. Along with this accomplishment came a first place team slalom and a downhill trophy. Fritz Holt, John Cogan, and Ron McMullen were the individual standouts. The former two flashed down the downhill and slalom courses to put together enough points for a second and third in the Alpine-Combined, and a third and a fourth respectively in the 4-Way Combined.

Fritz Holt was voted by his city competitors as man best fit for the inspirational award.

Looking over the records, one can see that this year's laudable ski quintet made a great name not only for itself, but for the school also.

FOOTBALL 4B

An outstanding 4B eleven swept the league this year with an undefeated record. Making a clean sweep of the Senior Division by defeating 4A in a playoff, the 4B Bar Flies went on to capture the crown by downing a spunky 2A team, the Junior Division champs.

Standouts on the squad were such heroes as "Bucker" Bown, "Killer" Haberle, "Snatch" Moore, "Dead Eye" Greif, "Fearless" Fitzgerald, and "Wrong Way" Cogan. The team had great depth as nearly all of 4B played at some time or other. Special credit goes to Jack Ladner, athletic director of 4B for making sure that the Bar Flies' schedule was properly met, and to quarterback Augie Bown who called many excellent plays throughout the season.

In the game of the year the Bar Flies defeated 2A for the school championship. The game was a real contest all the way and was observed by nearly all of the school. The lone and deciding touchdown was scored on a pass from Tom Greif to Tom Moore, giving 4B the title.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPS

BASKETBALL 4A

In a hotly contested race for the Senior Division title the 4A Loganberries conquered a powerful 4C team, and then followed through to take the school's intramural basketball crown by defeating a strong 2C five 2 out of 3 games.

4A had a rough schedule to face in pulling out its win. Having lost the first round of the senior league to 4C, 4A went on to take the second round, and met 4C in a post-season playoff which they won 2 out of 3 games. Thus they took the Senior Division title and gained the right to play Junior Division champs, 2C, for the school championship.

In a bitter contest for the school title 4A emerged victor on the long end of a 2 out of 3 series. 2C played fine ball forcing the tournament to go the distance, but lost the final game by a close score.

"Ace" Flood coached the 4A men to the school title. The standouts for the Loganberries were: "Dashing Dan" Newman, "Bel-Air" Wilson, "Swisher" Roddy, "Woogus" Maher, "Muscles" Lester, "Backboard" Blewett, and "Globetrotter" Godana.

First Row: Pat Roddy, Dan Newman, Bob Lester, Dick Blewett, Tim Flood.
Second Row: Bill Wilson, Ed Maher, Bob Godana.

BASEBALL

 Third Row: Carlo Leonetti, Jim Roberts, Jerry Calabrese, Pat Clancy, Jeff Pascoe, Bill Baldwin, Pat Tomkins.

TEAM

Under the direction of Coach John Goodwin, the Prep Panthers, with eight returning lettermen from the champion "Fire-Fighter" Legion team, had a most successful baseball season.

The infield could have played for any college team, with Karl Voegtlin at first base, veteran Jack George at second base, shifty Jim Harney at shortstop, and Joe Quinn at third. Denny Murphy proved to be a valuable utility man.

Heavy-hitting Bill Collier, dependable Don Maddox, and hustling Larry McCauley patrolled the outer gardens. Lettermen Paul Cruden and Pat Clancy also saw a lot of action.

The pitching staff was manned by many underclassmen including: Phil Kearns, Ray Brown, Dave Schneider, Bob Smith, Jeff Pascoe, Larry Hoyt, and Carlo Leonetti. Don Maddox also chucked the ball.

The catching spot was thrown wide open at the start of the season when veteran John Petosa broke his collar bone. Freshman Ed Allen got the starting call, and Bill Baldwin and Jerry Calabrese fought for the second string job.

Some of the players on Father Falsetto's Soph-Frosh team might easily become future varsity material. Mike Sullivan, Ed Hule, Tom Roe, and Leary Hambly hurled for the squad. On the catchers side of the battery were Pat Coogan and Jim Navone. The infield was stabilized with the hustling of Gurney Gue, Tom Mee, Mike Siguenza, Jerry Boner, Chuck Covello, Lee Zwettler, Jim Pigott, John Barrett, and Bill O'Connell. Jim Kizer, Dave McCulloch, Phil Johnston, Dick Ambur, Chuck Naze, and John Hellman held down the outfield positions for the talented underclassmen team.

Messrs. Keys and Robinson, S.J., molded the Cubs into a smooth working outfit. Pitching for the "mighty-mites," as well as doing part time infield work were Dick Swanson and Norm Gunwall. The infield positions were filled in by Bob Barr, Tony Cozzetti, Jerry Heppell, Jim Heath, Nick Mirante, Jim Riley, and Mike Perry. There were many excellent performers for the Cubs in the outfield. They included: Larry Deutsch, LeeRoy McCartney, Jim McElhinney, Jerry McAuliffe, Jerry O'Rourke, and John Rushka. Most of the Cub games during the season were scheduled against grade school teams.

TRACK

With many experienced lettermen and with many sparkling newcomers, Prep's track team enjoyed a highly successful season. Father Sneeringer again coached the cindermen and under his direction, Prep was host to the Cross-State Meet on May 4th at the University of Washington Stadium.

The dash assignments featured: Ken Sweeney, John Fitzgerald, Jim Murphy, Skip Kays, Bill Wilson, Jack Guise, John Mingus, Pat Gleeson, and Pat Bouker. The important relay team comprised Sweeney, Fitzgerald, Ryan, and Skip Kays. In the distance events the following turned in superb performances: John Haberle, Tom Greif, Denny McDonnell, Bob Beymer, and Ron and Dan McMullen. Covering the hurdles were: Tim Flood, John Youmans, Dick Kays, and Tom Budinick.

In the field events too, some excellent talent was shown. Veterans Jack Tallman and Mike Caplice hurled the discus, while the broad jumpers for the Panthers were Dick Kays and Tom Budinick. Chris Melgard and Bob Boback handled the shot put. A couple of newcomers, Bill Veit and Bob Beymer entered the pole vault event.
